

Choose a column & True or False.

DRESS CODE

denims	yoga pants	boxers	blazer	ponytail	leggings
underpants	high heels	engagement ring	wallet	waistcoat
one-size-fits-all	pajamas	tracksuit	pantyhose	sneakers
sleeveless	bathrobe	sweater	braces	stockings

Put the above words in the correct column.

Her	Unisex	His

=====

True or False

1. In general, workplaces prefer conservative dress.
2. Tattoos should be covered by clothing, if possible.
3. Your appearance should stand out in an interview so that the interviewer concentrates most on how you look.
4. Employers are legally allowed to enforce uniforms or dress codes.
5. If you aren't certain about the dress code, you should ask your employer.
6. Some employers can mandate that you don't have any facial hair.
7. Minimum wage employees can't be made to pay for a uniform.
8. Colors such as bright green or pink are good choices for a job interview.
9. Dress codes have to be the same for everyone; otherwise they are discriminatory.
10. Having enough professional work clothes is always expensive.

Teacher's Key

Her	Unisex	His
yoga pants	denims	boxers
engagement ring	blazer	underpants
high heels	ponytail	wallet
pantyhose	one-size-fits-all	waistcoat
leggings	pajamas	sleeveless
stockings	tracksuit	braces
	sneakers bathrobe sweater

Dress Code

1. In general, workplaces prefer conservative dress.
True
2. Tattoos should be covered by clothing, if possible.
True
3. Your appearance should stand out in an interview so that the interviewer concentrates most on how you look.
False
4. Employers are legally allowed to enforce uniforms or dress codes.
True
5. If you aren't certain about the dress code, you should ask your employer.
True
6. Some employers can mandate that you don't have any facial hair.
True
7. Minimum wage employees can't be made to pay for a uniform.
True
8. Colors such as bright green or pink are good choices for a job interview.
False
9. Dress codes have to be the same for everyone; otherwise they are discriminatory.
True
10. Having enough professional work clothes is always expensive.
False