

DRESS CODE

1. Vocabulary Matching

Match the clothing items with the appropriate dress code:

(Dress Codes: Business Casual, Formal, Casual, Casual Friday).

Clothing Items:

1. Blazer _____
2. Tie _____
3. Sneakers _____
4. Jeans _____
5. Dress Shirt _____
6. T-shirt _____
7. Dress Shoes _____
8. Polo Shirt _____

2. Fill-the-Gaps with Prepositions

Fill in the gaps with the correct prepositions (in, on, at, with, etc.).

1. "You should wear a blazer _____ a business meeting."
2. "_____ our company, jeans are allowed only on Fridays."
3. "She arrived _____ a black tie event wearing a formal dress."
4. "Casual Fridays allow you to dress _____ more comfortable clothes."
5. "_____ a wedding, it's appropriate to wear formal attire."
6. "He came to the office _____ a tie and dress shoes."
7. "Business casual often means wearing a polo shirt _____ summer."
8. "_____ the evening party, everyone was dressed casually."

3. True or False

Decide if the following statements are true or false.

True or False

1. "Jeans are appropriate for a formal dress code." _____
2. "A tie is usually required in a business casual dress code." _____
3. "Casual dress codes allow T-shirts and sneakers." _____
4. "Formal dress codes usually include wearing dress shoes." _____
5. "Blazers are only worn in formal dress codes." _____
6. "Casual Friday means you can wear jeans at work." _____
7. "Sneakers are acceptable in a business casual dress code." _____
8. "Polo shirts are considered business casual." _____

4. Role-Play Scenarios

In pairs, discuss what to wear according to the dress code.

- Scenario 1: Attending a job interview.
- _____
- _____
- Scenario 2: Going to a friend's wedding.
- _____
- _____
- Scenario 3: Casual Friday at a tech company.
- _____
- _____

5. Dress Code Debate

Split the class into two groups. One group argues in favor of having a strict dress code at work, while the other group argues against it.

6. Describing Outfits

Show students pictures of people in different outfits. Ask them to describe what the person is wearing and decide which dress code it matches.

Teacher's Key

1. Vocabulary Matching

Match the clothing items with the appropriate dress code:

(Dress Codes: Business Casual, Formal, Casual, Casual Friday).

Clothing Items:

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| 1. Blazer | Business Casual, Formal |
| 2. Tie | Formal |
| 3. Sneakers | Casual, Casual Friday |
| 4. Jeans | Casual, Casual Friday |
| 5. Dress Shirt | Business Casual, Formal |
| 6. T-shirt | Casual, Casual Friday |
| 7. Dress Shoes | Formal |
| 8. Polo Shirt | Business Casual, Casual, Casual Friday |

2. Fill-the-Gaps with Prepositions

Fill in the gaps with the correct prepositions (in, on, at, with, etc.).

1. "You should wear a blazer to a business meeting."
2. "At our company, jeans are allowed only on Fridays."
3. "She arrived at a black tie event wearing a formal dress."
4. "Casual Fridays allow you to dress in more comfortable clothes."
5. "At a wedding, it's appropriate to wear formal attire."
6. "He came to the office in a tie and dress shoes."
7. "Business casual often means wearing a polo shirt in summer."
8. "At the evening party, everyone was dressed casually."

3. True or False

Decide if the following statements are true or false.

1. "Jeans are appropriate for a formal dress code."
False (Jeans are not appropriate for a formal dress code.)
2. "A tie is usually required in a business casual dress code."
False (A tie is not always required in a business casual dress code.)
3. "Casual dress codes allow T-shirts and sneakers."
True (Casual dress codes allow T-shirts and sneakers.)
4. "Formal dress codes usually include wearing dress shoes."
True (Formal dress codes usually include wearing dress shoes.)
5. "Blazers are only worn in formal dress codes."
False (Blazers can be worn in both formal and business casual dress codes.)
6. "Casual Friday means you can wear jeans at work."
True (Casual Friday means you can wear jeans at work.)
7. "Sneakers are acceptable in a business casual dress code."
False (Sneakers are usually not acceptable in a business casual dress code.)
8. "Polo shirts are considered business casual."
True (Polo shirts are considered business casual.)

4. Role-Play Scenarios

Pair students and give them different scenarios where they must discuss what to wear according to the dress code. For example:

- Scenario 1: Attending a job interview.
- Scenario 2: Going to a friend's wedding.
- Scenario 3: Casual Friday at a tech company.

Teacher's Key

- Job Interview: Students should suggest wearing a suit, dress shoes, and a tie.
- Friend's Wedding: Students should suggest wearing a formal dress or a suit with dress shoes.
- Casual Friday: Students should suggest wearing smart jeans, a polo shirt, and casual shoes.

5. Dress Code Debate

Activity: Split the class into two groups. One group argues in favor of having a strict dress code at work, while the other group argues against it.

Teacher's Key

- In Favor: Points might include professionalism, uniformity, and reducing distractions.
- Against: Points might include comfort, self-expression, and cost.

6. Describing Outfits

Activity: Show students pictures of people in different outfits. Ask them to describe what the person is wearing and decide which dress code it matches.

Teacher's Key

(Answers may vary, but the general idea is to match descriptions with correct dress codes.)

- Example: "She is wearing a black blazer, white blouse, and black pants. This matches a business casual dress code."