

JOBS

Arrange the words in the correct order

1. server She a is in good restaurant. a _____
2. for He barber a went to haircut. the _____
3. the car. is mechanic fixing The _____
4. a She job has part-time a cashier. as _____
5. teacher She is famous a university. at a _____
6. dress The her tailor shorter. is making _____
7. receptionist very is friendly always helpful. the and

8. a travels he sports is photographer lot. and a

9. ask today. the he courier can if parcel collect the

10. and full-time from blogger he is a home. works

11. the nurse grandmother gave an injection. my _____
12. he call fix plumber, to the toilet. the needs _____

Underline the error in each sentence and correct the sentence

1. There are two receptionist at the front desk at all times.

2. The barista gave him any coffee. _____
3. Ask the secretary to take this books to the CEO.

4. The friendly shop assistant solded this shirt to me.

5. The cashier take the money and puts it in the till.

6. The referee blows his flute to control the players.

Teacher's Key

1. She is a server in a good restaurant.
2. He went to the barber for a haircut.
3. The mechanic is fixing the car.
4. She has a part-time job as a cashier.
5. She is a teacher at a famous university.
6. The tailor is making her dress shorter.
7. The receptionist is always very friendly and helpful.
8. He is a sports photographer and travels a lot.
9. Ask the courier if he can collect the parcel today.
10. He is a full-time blogger and works from home.
11. The nurse gave my grandmother an injection.
12. Call the plumber, he needs to fix the toilet.

Underline the error in each sentence and correct the sentence

1. There are two receptionists at the front desk at all times.
2. The barista gave him some coffee.
3. Ask the secretary to take these books to the CEO.
4. The friendly shop assistant sold this shirt to me.
5. The cashier takes the money and puts it in the till.
6. The referee blows his whistle to control the players.