

HALLOWEEN

Halloween Story - Fill The Gaps

ghosts haunted 31st attractions boundary costumes thinnest died treat

Halloween is celebrated on October _____ (1). It's a special night when people wear _____ (2) and go to parties. Some people like to dress up as _____ (3) or superheroes.

Children go from house to house saying "Trick or _____ (4)" and people give them candy or chocolates. Others like to visit _____ (5) houses or go to haunted _____ (6).

Halloween is also a time to remember people who have _____ (7). Some cultures believe that on Halloween, the _____ (8) between the living and the dead is at its _____ (9).

Pronouns and Possessive Adjectives

Last night, _____ (1) went to a Halloween party. My friend wore _____ (2) costume, a scary witch. I wore _____ (3) costume, a vampire.

When we arrived, _____ (4) friends were already there. They showed us _____ (5) decorations, which were very spooky. We played games and ate _____ (6) candy.

After a while, _____ (7) decided to go trick-or-treating. We walked to _____ (8) houses and said "Trick or treat!" The neighbors gave _____ (9) treats.

Prepositions

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition (IN, ON, AT, or TO):

1. The jack-o'-lantern was placed _____ the table.
2. The witch flew _____ the sky on her broomstick.
3. The monster was hiding _____ the closet.
4. The kids went trick-or-treating _____ the neighborhood.
5. The party was scheduled _____ 8pm.
6. The ghost was floating _____ the haunted house.
7. The mummy was wrapped _____ bandages.
8. The vampire flew _____ the castle.
9. The zombies were lurking _____ the shadows.
10. The black cat jumped _____ the fence.

Teachers Key

Halloween Story - Fill The Gaps

ghosts haunted 31st attractions boundary costumes thinnest died treat

Halloween is celebrated on October 31st (1). It's a special night when people wear costumes (2) and go to parties. Some people like to dress up as ghosts (3) or superheroes.

Children go from house to house saying "Trick or treat (4)" and people give them candy or chocolates. Others like to visit haunted (5) houses or go to haunted attractions (6).

Halloween is also a time to remember people who have died (7). Some cultures believe that on Halloween, the boundary (8) between the living and the dead is at its thinnest (9).

Pronouns and Possessive Adjectives

Last night, I (1) went to a Halloween party. My friend wore her (2) costume, a scary witch. I wore my (3) costume, a vampire.

When we arrived, our (4) friends were already there. They showed us their (5) decorations, which were very spooky. We played games and ate our (6) candy.

After a while, we (7) decided to go trick-or-treating. We walked to their (8) houses and said "Trick or treat!" The neighbors gave us/our (9) treats.

Prepositions

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition (IN, ON, AT, TO, OVER):

1. The jack-o'-lantern was placed on the table.
2. The witch flew in the sky on her broomstick.
3. The monster was hiding in the closet.
4. The kids went trick-or-treating in the neighborhood.
5. The party was scheduled at 8 pm.
6. The ghost was floating in the haunted house.
7. The mummy was wrapped in bandages.
8. The vampire flew to the castle.
9. The zombies were lurking in the shadows.
10. The black cat jumped over the fence.