

HALLOWEEN

Fill the Gaps - The Mysterious Pumpkin

spooky	granted	dark	hours	glowing
ghost	riddle	glow	magical	eerie

As I walked through the 1 _____ (adjective) forest, I stumbled upon a strange and mysterious pumpkin. It was 2 _____ (adjective) and had a creepy face carved into it. I felt a 3 _____ (adjective) chill run down my spine as I approached it.

Suddenly, a 4 _____ (noun) appeared out of nowhere and began to speak to me. "Welcome, mortal," it said. "I have been waiting for you." The voice was 5 _____ (adjective) and sent shivers down my spine.

The ghost told me that the pumpkin was 6 _____ (adjective) and would grant me a single wish if I solved its 7 _____ (noun). I eagerly agreed and began to work on the puzzle.

After many 8 _____ (plural noun) of trying, I finally solved it. The pumpkin began to 9 _____ (verb) and a bright light filled the air. I made my wish and, to my surprise, it was 10 _____ (adjective).

Pronouns - The Halloween Party

Last night, 1 _____ (I/me) attended a spooky Halloween party at 2 _____ (my friend's/friends') house. When 3 _____ (I/me) arrived, 4 _____ (they/them) were already there, wearing 5 _____ (their/theirs) costumes.

6 _____ (She/Her) was dressed as a witch, and 7 _____ (he/him) was a ghost. I was impressed by 8 _____ (their/theirs) creativity. We played games and told scary stories, and 9 _____ (I/me) had a great time.

At one point, 10 _____ (someone/anyone) knocked over a candle, and 11 _____ (it/its) flame went out. But 12 _____ (we/us) quickly lit another one, and the party continued.

As the night went on, 13 _____ (they/them) started to get tired, but 14 _____ (I/me) was still having fun. Eventually, 15 _____ (everyone/everybody) said goodbye, and 16 _____ (I/me) went home, exhausted but happy.

Teacher's Key

spooky	granted	dark	hours	glowing
ghost	riddle	glow	magical	eerie

As I walked through the 1 dark (adjective) forest, I stumbled upon a strange and mysterious pumpkin. It was 2 glowing (adjective) and had a creepy face carved into it. I felt a 3 eerie (adjective) chill run down my spine as I approached it.

Suddenly, a 4 ghost (noun) appeared out of nowhere and began to speak to me. "Welcome, mortal," it said. "I have been waiting for you." The voice was 5 spooky (adjective) and sent shivers down my spine.

The ghost told me that the pumpkin was 6 magical (adjective) and would grant me a single wish if I solved its 7 riddle (noun). I eagerly agreed and began to work on the puzzle.

After many 8 hours (plural noun) of trying, I finally solved it. The pumpkin began to 9 glow (verb) and a bright light filled the air. I made my wish and, to my surprise, it was 10 granted (adjective).

Pronouns - The Halloween Party

Last night, 1 I (I/me) attended a spooky Halloween party at 2 my friend's (my friend's/ friends') house. When 3 I (I/me) arrived, 4 they (they/them) were already there, wearing 5 their (their/theirs) costumes.

6 She (She/Her) was dressed as a witch, and 7 he (he/him) was a ghost. I was impressed by 8 their (their/theirs) creativity. We played games and told scary stories, and 9 I (I/me) had a great time.

At one point, 10 someone (someone/anyone) knocked over a candle, and 11 it (it/its) flame went out. But 12 we (we/us) quickly lit another one, and the party continued.

As the night went on, 13 they (they/them) started to get tired, but 14 I (I/me) was still having fun. Eventually, 15 everyone (everyone/everybody) said goodbye, and 16 I (I/me) went home, exhausted but happy.