

GLOBALIZATION

Passive Voice - Rewrite the following sentences in the passive voice.

1. Globalization has transformed industries worldwide.

2. Many countries have adopted new policies due to globalization.

3. Companies are outsourcing jobs to other countries.

4. Globalization will influence future cultural exchanges.

5. The internet connects millions of people daily.

6. Governments have signed trade agreements to promote globalization.

7. Technological advances are driving globalization.

8. Globalization is creating new opportunities for businesses.

Conditionals (First and Second)

Complete the sentences using the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. If globalization continues at this pace, more jobs _____ (create) in developing countries.
2. If I were in charge of global policies, I _____ (promote) sustainable development.
3. If companies _____ (invest) in local economies, they would see long-term benefits.
4. If there _____ (be) no globalization, many people would not have access to global markets.
5. If countries work together, they _____ (solve) global challenges faster.
6. If I _____ (have) more influence, I would push for fair trade practices.
7. If technology _____ (not advance), globalization wouldn't be as widespread.
8. If you _____ (study) globalization, you would understand its impacts better.

Prepositions

Fill in the blanks with the correct prepositions.

1. The impact _____ globalization _____ the environment is significant.
2. Trade agreements have been signed _____ many countries.
3. Globalization has led to an increase _____ international trade.
4. Many people benefit _____ the opportunities created by globalization.
5. The influence of globalization _____ local cultures can be both positive and negative.
6. Globalization is often discussed _____ economic terms.
7. She works _____ a global corporation.
8. Globalization has spread ideas _____ different parts of the world.

Relative Clauses Worksheet

Combine the sentences using relative clauses.

1. Globalization is a process. It affects all aspects of life.

2. Many companies outsource their work. These companies benefit from cheaper labor.

3. He works for a multinational corporation. It has offices in over 50 countries.

4. The internet connects people. These people live in different parts of the world.

5. She works in a field. This field is heavily influenced by globalization.

6. The factory produces goods. These goods are sold globally.

7. They signed a trade agreement. The agreement will boost international trade.

8. The company launched a new product. The product was designed for the global market.

Teacher's Key

Passive Voice

Rewrite the following sentences in the passive voice.

1. Globalization has transformed industries worldwide.
Industries worldwide have been transformed by globalization.
2. Many countries have adopted new policies due to globalization.
New policies have been adopted by many countries due to globalization.
3. Companies are outsourcing jobs to other countries.
Jobs are being outsourced by companies to other countries.
4. Globalization will influence future cultural exchanges.
Future cultural exchanges will be influenced by globalization.
5. The internet connects millions of people daily.
Millions of people are connected daily by the internet.
6. Governments have signed trade agreements to promote globalization.
Trade agreements have been signed by governments to promote globalization.
7. Technological advances are driving globalization.
Globalization is being driven by technological advances.
8. Globalization is creating new opportunities for businesses.
New opportunities for businesses are being created by globalization.

Conditionals (First and Second)

Complete the sentences using the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. If globalization continues at this pace, more jobs will be created (create) in developing countries.
2. If I were in charge of global policies, I would promote (promote) sustainable development.
3. If companies invested (invest) in local economies, they would see long-term benefits.
4. If there were (be) no globalization, many people would not have access to global markets.
5. If countries work together, they will solve (solve) global challenges faster.
6. If I had (have) more influence, I would push for fair trade practices.
7. If technology hadn't advanced (not advance), globalization wouldn't be as widespread.
8. If you studied (study) globalization, you would understand its impacts better.

Prepositions

Fill in the blanks with the correct prepositions.

1. The impact of globalization on the environment is significant.
2. Trade agreements have been signed by many countries.
3. Globalization has led to an increase in international trade.
4. Many people benefit from the opportunities created by globalization.
5. The influence of globalization on local cultures can be both positive and negative.
6. Globalization is often discussed in economic terms.
7. She works at a global corporation.
8. Globalization has spread ideas to different parts of the world.

Relative Clauses Worksheet

Combine the sentences using relative clauses.

1. Globalization is a process. It affects all aspects of life.
Globalization is a process that affects all aspects of life.
2. Many companies outsource their work. These companies benefit from cheaper labor.
Many companies that outsource their work benefit from cheaper labor.
3. He works for a multinational corporation. It has offices in over 50 countries.
He works for a multinational corporation that has offices in over 50 countries.
4. The internet connects people. These people live in different parts of the world.
The internet connects people who live in different parts of the world.
5. She works in a field. This field is heavily influenced by globalization.
She works in a field that is heavily influenced by globalization.
6. The factory produces goods. These goods are sold globally.
The factory produces goods that are sold globally.
7. They signed a trade agreement. The agreement will boost international trade.
They signed a trade agreement that will boost international trade.
8. The company launched a new product. The product was designed for the global market.
The company launched a new product that was designed for the global market.