

HOUSE & HOME

Prepositions

- IN: inside, within (e.g., in the room, in the city)
- ON: surfaces, dates (e.g., on the table, on Friday)
- AT: locations, times (e.g., at home, at 5 pm)
- TO: directions, destinations (e.g., to the store, to London)
- FROM: origins, sources (e.g., from Paris, from my friend)

Fill in the blanks with the correct preposition:

1. I'm meeting my friends _____ the park at 5 pm.
2. The book is _____ the top shelf.
3. She's studying _____ the university.
4. Can you take me _____ the airport?
5. The party starts _____ 8 pm.
6. I'm moving _____ New York next month.
7. The restaurant is located _____ the corner of Main Street.
8. I'm traveling _____ Paris _____ Rome.
9. Please send the package _____ my address.
10. The meeting will be held _____ the conference room.

Pronouns and Possessive Forms - The Smith Family's Home

The Patterson family lives in a cozy house in the countryside. _____ home has three bedrooms, a kitchen, and a spacious living room. In the evenings, _____ all gather in the living room to watch TV. Mr. Patterson always sits in _____ favorite armchair near the window. _____ likes to be able to look outside while watching shows. Mrs. Patterson prefers the couch. _____ seat is right in the middle, so _____ can see everything clearly. The kids, Emily and James, have _____ own favorite spots. Emily usually sits on the big beanbag in the corner, while James stretches out on the floor in front of the TV.

When it's time for dinner, _____ all go to the dining room. _____ dining table is large enough for the whole family. They enjoy sitting together and sharing meals. Mrs. Patterson sets the table, making sure everyone has _____ usual spot. Mr. Patterson always sits at the head of the table, Emily sits next to _____ mom, and James takes the seat across from _____ sister.

The kitchen is _____ favorite part of the house because it's where they all gather to cook, eat, and talk about their day.

Teacher's Key

Prepositions

Tips:

- IN: inside, within (e.g., in the room, in the city)
- ON: surfaces, dates (e.g., on the table, on Friday)
- AT: locations, times (e.g., at home, at 5 pm)
- TO: directions, destinations (e.g., to the store, to London)
- FROM: origins, sources (e.g., from Paris, from my friend)

Fill in the blanks with the correct preposition:

1. I'm meeting my friends at the park at 5 pm.
2. The book is on the top shelf.
3. She's studying at the university.
4. Can you take me to the airport?
5. The party starts at 8 pm.
6. I'm moving to Cape Town next month.
7. The restaurant is located at/on the corner of Main Street.
8. I'm traveling from Paris to Rome.
9. Please send the package to my address.
10. The meeting will be held at/in the conference room.

Pronouns and Possessive Forms - The Smith Family's Home

The Patterson family lives in a cozy house in the countryside. Their home has three bedrooms, a kitchen, and a spacious living room. In the evenings, they all gather in the living room to watch TV. Mr. Patterson always sits in his favorite armchair near the window. He likes to be able to look outside while watching shows. Mrs. Patterson prefers the couch. Her seat is right in the middle, so she can see everything clearly. The kids, Emily and James, have their own favorite spots. Emily usually sits on the big beanbag in the corner, while James stretches out on the floor in front of the TV.

When it's time for dinner, they all go to the dining room. Their dining table is large enough for the whole family. They enjoy sitting together and sharing meals. Mrs. Patterson sets the table, making sure everyone has their usual spot. Mr. Patterson always sits at the head of the table, Emily sits next to her mom, and James takes the seat across from his sister.

The kitchen is their favorite part of the house because it's where they all gather to cook, eat, and talk about their day.