

MONEY MATTERS

A. Collocations

Can you think of words that go before money and words that go after money?

Words BEFORE money e.g big money

Words AFTER money e.g money job

- | | |
|----------------|-------------|
| 1. _____ money | money _____ |
| 2. _____ money | money _____ |
| 3. _____ money | money _____ |
| 4. _____ money | money _____ |
| 5. _____ money | money _____ |
| 6. _____ money | money _____ |
| 7. _____ money | money _____ |
| 8. _____ money | money _____ |

B. Much and Many

Choose the correct word (much or many) to complete each sentence:

1. I don't have _____ time to watch TV.
2. There are _____ people at the party.
3. She doesn't eat _____ sweets.
4. How _____ money do you have?
5. I have _____ friends in my class.
6. There's not _____ water in the bottle.
7. He has _____ brothers and sisters.
8. I don't have _____ experience in cooking.

C. Passage

"My friend Emily and I are saving up for a trip to Europe. We have been working part-time jobs to earn our own money. Her salary is higher than mine, but I'm managing to save a significant amount. My budget is tight, but I'm determined to reach my goal. Our parents have offered to lend us some money, but we want to pay our own way. It's our dream trip, after all."

1. Identify the pronouns: _____
2. Identify the possessive pronouns: _____
3. Identify the possessive adjectives: _____

Teacher's Key

Words BEFORE money	Words AFTER money
e.g big money	e.g money time
1. withdraw money	1. money box
2. exchange money	2. money supply
3. sufficient money	3. money markets
4. additional money	4. money problems
5. spare money	5. money laundering
6. invest money	6. money manager
7. donate money	7. money order
8. collect money	8. money worries
9. raise money	9. money management
10. embezzle money	10. money launderer

B. Much and Many

Choose the correct word (much or many) to complete each sentence:

1. I don't have much time to watch TV.
2. There are many people at the party.
3. She doesn't eat many sweets.
4. How much money do you have?
5. I have many friends in my class.
6. There's not much water in the bottle.
7. He has many brothers and sisters.
8. I don't have much experience in cooking.

C. Passage

"My friend Emily and I are saving up for a trip to Europe. We have been working part-time jobs to earn our own money. Her salary is higher than mine, but I'm managing to save a significant amount. My budget is tight, but I'm determined to reach my goal. Our parents have offered to lend us some money, but we want to pay our own way. It's our dream trip, after all."

1. Identify the pronouns: I, me, we, us, her
2. Identify the possessive pronouns: mine
3. Identify the possessive adjectives: my, our, her

Notes:

1. Possessive adjectives (my, her, their) describe the noun and show ownership.
2. Possessive pronouns (mine, theirs) replace the noun and show ownership.