

Dear Juliet, guess where I am.

LOVE YOU, ROMEO

Romeo's Letter Series - Guess Where I Am!

Dear Students,

Have you heard of Romeo and Juliet? Today, I'll be "Romeo," and you'll be "Juliet"! I'm traveling to a faraway country, and each week, I'll write you a letter with clues about where I am. Your challenge is to guess my location based on my letters and the hints!

Week 1 Dear Juliet,

Many of the first European settlers here were convicts sent by the British government. Others came to start new lives, but the journey was long and hard. Can you guess where I am?

Love,

Romeo

(Don't confirm if anyone guesses correctly yet.)

Week 2 Dear Juliet,

The weather here is amazing—much nicer than back home! It's warm, with beautiful beaches, rainforests, and plenty to see and do. No wonder so many tourists come here! Wish you were here!

Love,

Romeo

(Does anyone want to guess?)

Week 3 Dear Juliet,

I've traveled to the far north of this country. There are lots of tourists here to see the Great Barrier Reef. The sunsets are stunning. I wish you could see them with me. Any ideas where I might be?

Love you so much,

Romeo

Week 4 Dear Juliet,

You would love the wildlife here! There's an animal that hops around everywhere, and the females carry their babies in a pouch. Fascinating! Can you guess where I am?

With all my love,

Romeo

Extra Clues - Quiz Questions

1. This country is famous for crocodiles. Any guesses?
2. It was once ruled by England.
3. It's nicknamed "The Land Down Under."
4. They love sports, especially swimming.
5. It has a small population of around 26 million.
6. There's an animal here called a "dingo." Is it a flower, tree, bird, or wild dog?
7. It's also home to a large bird called the emu, which looks like a smaller ostrich.

The topic for today's lesson is Australia

8. Can you name a famous landmark in Australia?
9. Where is Australia? In the Northern or Southern Hemisphere?