

PIZZA - A SLICE OF LIFE

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

Use the comparative or superlative form of the adjective in parentheses to complete each sentence.

1. This pizza is _____ (tasty) than the one we had yesterday.
2. Pepperoni is _____ (popular) topping on the menu.
3. A large pizza is _____ (big) than a medium one.
4. Pineapple is one of the _____ (unusual) toppings for pizza.
5. This pizza has _____ (many) toppings than that one.
6. The crust is _____ (crispy) than the other one.
7. My friend ordered _____ (expensive) pizza on the menu.
8. Cheese makes the pizza _____ (delicious) than without it.
9. This pizza place is _____ (good) than the one downtown.
10. This is the _____ (cheap) pizza I've ever had!

B. Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Choose the correct form (is/are, much/many) based on countable and uncountable nouns.

1. How _____ (much/many) slices of pizza do you want?
2. There _____ (is/are) two pizzas on the table.
3. There isn't _____ (much/many) cheese left for the pizza.
4. _____ (Is/Are) there any toppings you don't like?
5. I ordered _____ (much/many) mushrooms on my pizza.
6. There _____ (is/are) only one pizza left.
7. How _____ (much/many) pepperonis do you want on your pizza?
8. There isn't _____ (much/many) tomato sauce on the pizza.
9. _____ (Is/Are) there any extra napkins for the pizza?
10. How _____ (much/many) pizzas did we order?

C. Like and Dislike

1. What I like most about going to fast-food restaurants. _____
2. What I like least about going to fast-food restaurants. _____
3. What I like most about ordering a pizza. _____
4. What I like least about ordering a pizza. _____
5. What I like most about going for a burger and chips. _____
6. What I like least about going for a burger and chips. _____
7. What I like most about a bowl of noodles. _____
8. What I like least about a bowl of noodles. _____

Teacher's Key

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

Use the comparative or superlative form of the adjective in parentheses to complete each sentence.

1. This pizza is tastier (tasty) than the one we had yesterday.
2. Pepperoni is the most popular (popular) topping on the menu.
3. A large pizza is bigger (big) than a medium one.
4. Pineapple is one of the most unusual (unusual) toppings for pizza.
5. This pizza has more (many) toppings than that one.
6. The crust is crispier (crispy) than the other one.
7. My friend ordered the most expensive (expensive) pizza on the menu.
8. Cheese makes the pizza more delicious (delicious) than without it.
9. This pizza place is better (good) than the one downtown.
10. This is the cheapest (cheap) pizza I've ever had!

B. Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Choose the correct form (is/are, much/many) based on countable and uncountable nouns.

1. How many (much/many) slices of pizza do you want?
2. There are (is/are) two pizzas on the table.
3. There isn't much (much/many) cheese left for the pizza.
4. Are (Is/Are) there any toppings you don't like?
5. I ordered many (much/many) mushrooms on my pizza.
6. There is (is/are) only one pizza left.
7. How many (much/many) pepperonis do you want on your pizza?
8. There isn't much (much/many) tomato sauce on the pizza.
9. Are (Is/Are) there any extra napkins for the pizza?
10. How many (much/many) pizzas did we order?