

SHOPPING

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

1. This shirt is _____ than the one I bought last week. (expensive)
2. The sale is _____ today than yesterday. (good)
3. This store has _____ prices than the one downtown. (low)
4. Which supermarket has _____ selection of organic food? (big)
5. I want to buy _____ pair of shoes in the store. (comfortable)
6. This coffee is _____ than the one we had at the café. (strong)
7. The new mall is _____ than the old one. (large)
8. This is _____ gift I can find for my friend. (perfect)

B. Countable and Uncountable Nouns

1. I need to buy _____ of milk. (a bottle / some)
2. Can I have _____ apples, please? (two / some)
3. How _____ sugar do you need for this recipe? (many / much)
4. There are _____ shops in this mall. (many / much)
5. I'd like to try _____ of that cake. (a slice / some)
6. We need _____ water for the party. (more / many)
7. How _____ pairs of shoes do you have? (many / much)
8. Can you pass me _____ rice? (some / a bowl)

C. Going On A Shopping Spree

Last Saturday, Emily, Sarah, Michael, and Tom decided to go shopping together. _____ met at the mall at 10 am, very happy to spend _____ Saturday morning browsing through many of the shops.

Emily said, "_____ mom gave _____ a gift card to the clothing store, so I'm going to buy some new jeans." Sarah replied, "I need to get a new pair of shoes to match _____ that are worn out."

Michael suggested, "Let's check out the electronics store first. _____ can look for _____ friend's birthday gift." Tom agreed, "_____ would love that new gaming console." After trying on several outfits, Emily got really excited, "This dress is perfect for _____!" Sarah helped _____ pick out a matching scarf. Meanwhile, Michael and Tom found the ideal gift – a high-tech smartwatch.

As _____ finished shopping, Emily said, "I'm starving." _____ friends agreed and they went up to the food court for lunch.

Teacher's Key

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

1. This shirt is more expensive than the one I bought last week. (expensive)
2. The sale is better today than yesterday. (good)
3. This store has lower prices than the one downtown. (low)
4. Which supermarket has the biggest selection of organic food? (big)
5. I want to buy the most comfortable pair of shoes in the store. (comfortable)
6. This coffee is stronger than the one we had at the café. (strong)
7. The new mall is larger than the old one. (large)
8. This is the best gift I can find for my friend. (perfect)

B. Countable and Uncountable Nouns

1. I need to buy a bottle of / some of milk. (a bottle / some)
2. Can I have two / some apples, please? (two / some)
3. How much sugar do you need for this recipe? (many / much)
4. There are many / a lot of shops in this mall. (many / much)
5. I'd like to try a slice / some of that cake. (a slice / some)
6. We need more water for the party. (more / many)
7. How many pairs of shoes do you have? (many / much)
8. Can you pass me some rice? (some / a bowl)

C. Going On A Shopping Spree

Last Saturday, Emily, Sarah, Michael, and Tom decided to go shopping together. They met at the mall at 10 am, very happy to spend their Saturday morning browsing through many of the shops.

Emily said, "My mom gave me a gift card to the clothing store, so I'm going to buy some new jeans." Sarah replied, "I need to get a new pair of shoes to match mine that are worn out."

Michael suggested, "Let's check out the electronics store first. We can look for our friend's birthday gift." Tom agreed, "He would love that new gaming console."

After trying on several outfits, Emily got really excited, "This dress is perfect for me!" Sarah helped her pick out a matching scarf. Meanwhile, Michael and Tom found the ideal gift – a high-tech smartwatch.

As they finished shopping, Emily said, "I'm starving." Her friends agreed and they went up to the food court for lunch.