

A BURGER, PLEASE

A. Fill the Gaps: Pronouns and Possessive Adjectives

The Burger Adventure

Three friends decided to have a picnic. John brought a big burger, but ____ forgot to bring a knife. Emily said, “Don’t worry, I have one in ____ bag!” Alex laughed and added, “I also brought ketchup. ____ favorite food is a burger with lots of ketchup!”

When ____ sat down to eat, John asked, “Emily, is this burger ____?” Emily shook ____ head and replied, “No, I think it’s Alex’s.” Alex smiled and said, “Yes, it’s _____. I made it _____!”

While they were eating, a bird flew by and tried to grab the burger. “Look at ____ wings!” John shouted. “It’s trying to steal ____ food!” Emily waved ____ hands to scare the bird away. Alex said, “I’m glad ____ burger is safe. Next time, I’ll bring a cover for ____ food.”

After finishing their meal, the three friends relaxed on the grass. Emily asked, “John, can I borrow ____ phone to take a photo?” John handed it to ____ and said, “Sure, here you go.”

They had a great time and decided to have a picnic more often.

B. Fill the Gaps: Prepositions (In, On, At, To, From)

1. John lives _____ a small apartment near the park.
2. Emily is sitting _____ the grass while eating her burger.
3. Alex pointed _____ the bird that tried to steal the burger.
4. The three friends decided to walk _____ the lake after lunch.
5. “Let’s meet _____ the picnic area at 2 p.m.,” said John.
6. Emily came _____ the city center to join the picnic.
7. Alex kept the ketchup _____ his bag during the picnic.
8. John forgot to bring a knife _____ his house.
9. The friends stayed _____ the park until sunset.
10. “Can you pass the mustard _____ me?” asked Emily.
11. The bird flew _____ the tree and landed near their food.
12. After the picnic, everyone went _____ their homes feeling happy.

Teacher's Key

A. Fill the Gaps: Pronouns and Possessive Adjectives

The Burger Adventure

Three friends decided to have a picnic. John brought a big burger, but he forgot to bring a knife. Emily said, "Don't worry, I have one in my bag!" Alex laughed and added, "I also brought ketchup. My favorite food is a burger with lots of ketchup!"

When they sat down to eat, John asked, "Emily, is this burger yours?" Emily shook her head and replied, "No, I think it's Alex's." Alex smiled and said, "Yes, it's mine. I made it myself!"

While they were eating, a bird flew by and tried to grab the burger. "Look at its wings!" John shouted. "It's trying to steal our food!" Emily waved her hands to scare the bird away. Alex said, "I'm glad my burger is safe. Next time, I'll bring a cover for our food."

After finishing their meal, the three friends relaxed on the grass. Emily asked, "John, can I borrow your phone to take a photo?" John handed it to her and said, "Sure, here you go."

They had a great time and decided to have a picnic more often.

B. Fill the Gaps: Prepositions (In, On, At, To, From)

1. John lives in a small apartment near the park.
2. Emily is sitting on the grass while eating her burger.
3. Alex pointed to the bird that tried to steal the burger.
4. The three friends decided to walk to the lake after lunch.
5. "Let's meet at the picnic area at 2 p.m.," said John.
6. Emily came from the city center to join the picnic.
7. Alex kept the ketchup in his bag during the picnic.
8. John forgot to bring a knife from his house.
9. The friends stayed at the park until sunset.
10. "Can you pass the mustard to me?" asked Emily.
11. The bird flew from the tree and landed near their food.
12. After the picnic, everyone went to their homes feeling happy.