

SCHOOL

A. Used to

Complete the sentences with "used to" or the present simple.

1. I _____ (walk) to school when I was younger.
2. My best friend _____
(live) in another country now.
3. We _____ (have) a longer summer break last year.
4. The school _____
(start) at 9 am last year.
5. I _____ (be) shy when
I was in elementary school.
6. The teacher _____
(give) us more homework than now.
7. My family _____
(move) to a new house every year.
8. The school _____
(have) a uniform policy.

B. Modal Verbs

Complete the sentences with can, could, may, might, should, or must.

1. You _____ arrive on time for class.
2. Students _____ use their phones during lunch.
3. If you study hard, you _____ get good grades.
4. By law, students _____ attend school until age 16.
5. You _____ ask your teacher for help.
6. She _____ be late for school today.
7. I _____ speak English fluently.
8. The teacher said we _____ leave early.

C. Reported Speech

Complete the sentences with the reported speech.

1. The teacher said, "Be quiet." → The teacher told us to _____.
2. "I'll meet you at 3 pm," she said. → She said she _____.
3. "Don't forget your homework," my mom reminded me. → My mom reminded me _____.
4. "You should study harder," the teacher advised. → The teacher advised me _____.
5. "We're having a test tomorrow," the teacher announced. → The teacher announced _____.
6. "I'll help you with your math," my friend offered. → My friend offered _____.
7. "Don't be late," the principal warned. → The principal warned us _____.
8. "You did a great job," the teacher praised. → The teacher praised me _____.

D. First Conditional

Complete the sentences with the first conditional.

1. If I _____ (pass) my exam, I'll go to college.
2. If it _____ (rain), we'll have recess indoors.
3. If I _____ (get) good grades, my parents will be proud.
4. If the teacher _____ (give) us homework, we'll do it.
5. If the school _____ (close), we'll have a snow day.
6. If I _____ (finish) my project, I'll show it to my friends.
7. If the students _____ (behave), they'll get a reward.
8. If I _____ (miss) the bus, I'll walk to school.

Teacher's Key

A. Used to

Complete the sentences with "used to" or the present simple.

1. I used to walk (walk) to school when I was younger.
2. My best friend lives (live) in another country now.
3. We used to have (have) a longer summer break last year.
4. The school used to start (start) at 9 am last year.
5. I used to be (be) shy when I was in elementary school.
6. The teacher used to give (give) us more homework than now.
7. My family used to move (move) to a new house every year.
8. The school has (have) a uniform policy.

B. Modal Verbs

Complete the sentences with can, could, may, might, should, or must.

1. You must arrive on time for class.
2. Students can use their phones during lunch.
3. If you study hard, you may get good grades.
4. By law, students must attend school until age 16.
5. You should ask your teacher for help.
6. She might be late for school today.
7. I can speak English fluently.
8. The teacher said we could leave early.

C. Reported Speech

Complete the sentences with the reported speech.

1. The teacher said, "Be quiet." → The teacher told us to be quiet.
2. "I'll meet you at 3 pm," she said. → She said she would meet me at 3 pm.
3. "Don't forget your homework," my mom reminded me. → My mom reminded me not to forget my homework.
4. "You should study harder," the teacher advised. → The teacher advised me to study harder.
5. "We're having a test tomorrow," the teacher announced. → The teacher announced that we were having a test the next day.
6. "I'll help you with your math," my friend offered. → My friend offered to help me with my math.
7. "Don't be late," the principal warned. → The principal warned us not to be late.
8. "You did a great job," the teacher praised. → The teacher praised me for doing a great job.

D. First Conditional

Complete the sentences with the first conditional.

1. If I pass (pass) my exam, I'll go to college.
2. If it rains (rain), we'll have recess indoors.
3. If I get (get) good grades, my parents will be proud.
4. If the teacher gives (give) us homework, we'll do it.
5. If the school closes (close), we'll have a snow day.
6. If I finish (finish) my project, I'll show it to my friends.
7. If the students behave (behave), they'll get a reward.
8. If I miss (miss) the bus, I'll walk to school.