

GET - THE MEANINGS

A. Choose the Correct Meaning

Read each sentence and choose the correct meaning of GET.

- I got a call from my boss.
a) Arrived b) Received c) Obtained d) Became
- She got tired quickly.
a) Became b) Received c) Obtained d) Arrived
- We got to the party at 9 pm.
a) Became b) Received c) Obtained d) Arrived
- He got me to donate to charity.
a) Convinced b) Received c) Obtained d) Arrived
- I've got two dogs.
a) Opportunity b) Received c) Possess d) Convince

B. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of GET.

- By the time we _____ to the store, it was closed.
- She _____ a promotion last month.
- Can you _____ him to attend the meeting?
- What time do you _____ up in the morning?
- I _____ to travel to Europe next year.
- We _____ three hours to finish the project.
- Do you _____ what I'm saying?
- I _____ a lot of emails every day.
- Let's _____ moving; we're late!
- She _____ to study abroad.

C. Error Identification

Identify the incorrect use of GET.

- I get up 6 am every morning. _____
- She got very tired after the long walk. _____
- We got the movie theater at 8 pm. _____
- He get me to donate to charity. _____
- I've got to finish this project today. _____

D. Sentence Transformation

Transform the sentences using GET.

Remind them to use the correct tense [e.g., got vs. get] depending on the sentence.

1. The package will arrive tomorrow morning.

2. She obtained a scholarship to study abroad.

3. I receive many emails every day.

4. They convinced us to join the club.

5. The bus will leave at 8 am sharp.

6. I possess two cars.

7. The meeting will start at 2 pm.

8. She understands the difficult math concept.

9. We have to finish the project by Friday.

10. The traveler arrived at the hotel exhausted.

11. The company will start a new project next month.

12. I will travel to Europe for vacation.

Teacher's Key

A. Choose the Correct Meaning

Read each sentence and choose the correct meaning of GET.

- I got a call from my boss.
a) Arrived b) Received c) Obtained d) Became
- She got tired quickly.
a) Became b) Received c) Obtained d) Arrived
- We got to the party at 9 pm.
a) Became b) Received c) Obtained d) Arrived
- He got me to donate to charity.
a) Convinced b) Received c) Obtained d) Arrived
- I've got two dogs.
a) Opportunity b) Received c) Possess d) Convince

B. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of GET.

- By the time we got to the store, it was closed.
- She got a promotion last month.
- Can you get him to attend the meeting?
- What time do you get up in the morning?
- I get to travel to Europe next year.
- We have got three hours to finish the project.
- Do you get what I'm saying?
- I get a lot of emails every day.
- Let's get moving; we're late!
- She gets to study abroad.

C. Error Identification

Identify the incorrect use of GET.

- I get up 6 am every morning. Incorrect - should be "get up at"
- She got very tired after the long walk. Correct
- We got the movie theater at 8 pm. Incorrect - should be "arrived at"
- He get me to donate to charity. Incorrect - should be "got me"
- I've got to finish this project today. Correct

D. Sentence Transformation

Transform the sentences using GET.

Remind them to use the correct tense [e.g., got vs. get] depending on the sentence.

- The package will arrive tomorrow morning. The package will get here tomorrow morning.
- She obtained a scholarship to study abroad. She got a scholarship to study abroad.
- I receive many emails every day. I get many emails every day.
- They convinced us to join the club. They got us to join the club.
- The bus will leave at 8 am sharp. We have got to get on the bus by 8 am sharp.
- I possess two cars. I've got two cars.
- The meeting will start at 2 pm. Let's get started at 2 pm.
- She understands the difficult math concept. Does she get the difficult math concept?
- We have to finish the project by Friday. We've got to finish the project by Friday.
- The traveler arrived at the hotel exhausted. The traveler got to the hotel exhausted.
- The company will start a new project next month. The company will get started on a new project next month.
- I will travel to Europe for vacation. I get to travel to Europe for vacation.