

COMPARATIVES & SUPERLATIVES

Fill the gaps with the correct form of the word.

Remember when you “compare” something to something else, you say: “My brother is funnier THAN my sister.”

With superlatives, you must add THE before adjective/adverb, for example, “My sister is THE naughtiest in our family.”

1. Mario is _____ (old) his brother.
2. She is _____ (friendly) in her family.
3. Mario thinks Micka is _____ (pretty) girl in town.
4. Does Mario have a _____ (young) brother?
5. Mario does have a beautiful _____ (young) sister.
6. His _____ (young) sister’s name is Marianne.
7. Marianne’s hair is _____ (dark) Mario’s, but Dad’s is _____ (dark).
8. Marianne is _____ (short) girl in her class.
9. Mario’s father is _____ (tall) in the family.
10. Mario’s mother is _____ (best) teacher at her school.
11. Mario goes to the gym every day. He is _____ (strong) in his family.
12. Mom is _____ (old) me, but my grandma is _____ (old).
13. The family also has a young cat and an _____ (old) dog.
14. Their dog is _____ (big) their cat.
15. His mother is _____ (hard)-working person in the family.

Complete the sentence - Family.

1. I am the _____, the _____, and the _____ in my family.
2. My father is _____, _____, and _____ than me.
3. My grandma is the _____, the _____, and the _____ in our family.
4. Our house is _____ and _____ than the house next to us.
5. I don’t like my brother. He is the _____ and _____ in our family.

Complete the sentence - Friends.

1. My best friend is _____, _____, and _____ than me.
2. I am _____, _____, and _____ than my friend.
3. My friend's mom is _____, _____, and _____ than my mom.

Teacher's Key

Fill the gaps with the correct form of the word.

1. Mario is older than his brother.
2. She is the friendliest in her family.
3. Mario thinks Micka is the prettiest girl in town.
4. Does Mario have a younger brother?
5. Mario does have a beautiful younger sister.
6. His younger sister's name is Marianne.
7. Marianne's hair is darker than Mario's, but Dad's is the darkest.
8. Marianne is the shortest girl in her class.
9. Mario's father is the tallest in the family.
10. Mario's mother is the best teacher at her school.
11. Mario goes to the gym every day. He is the strongest in his family.
12. Mom is older than me, but my grandma is the oldest.
13. The family also has a young cat and an older dog.
14. Their dog is bigger than their cat.
15. His mother is the hardest-working person in the family.

Complete the sentence - Family.

1. I am the youngest, the shortest, and the most creative in my family.
Etc.