

THANKSGIVING

A. Thanksgiving Cooking Methods

Match the cooking method with the corresponding food.

Cooking Methods

1. Boil
2. Fry
3. Grill
4. Roast
5. Bake
6. Barbecue

Foods

- a. Turkey
- b. Mashed potatoes
- c. Pumpkin pie
- d. Sausages
- e. Vegetables (carrots, green beans)
- f. Steak

B. Thanksgiving - Fill The Gaps

baking gathering thankful peeling stuffing

It was Thanksgiving Day and the Watsons were _____ at their grandmother, Helen's, house. Her granddaughter, Emily, helped Helen prepare the turkey, carefully _____ it with herbs and spices.

Meanwhile, Emily's brother, Ethan, assisted their mother, Sarah, with _____ potatoes for the mashed potatoes. Sarah also made a delicious pumpkin pie, _____ it to perfection in the oven.

As they sat down to eat, Helen asked everyone to share what they were _____ for. Emily said, "I'm thankful for my family's love." Ethan added, "And for Grandma's amazing cooking!" They all laughed.

After dinner, they watched football together, enjoying each other's company.

Comprehension Questions

1. Where did the Watsons gather for Thanksgiving?
2. What did Emily help Helen prepare?
3. What did Ethan help with?
4. What did they share before eating?
5. What did they do after dinner?

C. Identify the wrong word and correct the sentence

1. The turkey was very tastefully. _____
2. My aunt is a very skilled cooker. _____
3. Don't forget to prehot the oven before you add the stuffing.

4. This pumpkin pie is very sweets. _____
5. I'm afraid my father has never been very better at cooking.

6. You can buy this cranberry sauce in five different designs.

Teacher's Key

A. Thanksgiving Cooking Methods

Match the cooking method with the corresponding food.

Cooking Methods

1. Boil
2. Fry
3. Grill
4. Roast
5. Bake
6. Barbecue

Foods

- b. Mashed potatoes / e. Vegetable
- d. Sausages
- f. Steak
- a. Turkey
- c. Pumpkin pie
- f. Steak / d. Sausages

B. Thanksgiving - Fill The Gaps

baking gathering thankful peeling stuffing

It was Thanksgiving Day and the Watsons were gathering at their grandmother, Helen's, house. Her granddaughter, Emily, helped Helen prepare the turkey, carefully stuffing it with herbs and spices.

Meanwhile, Emily's brother, Ethan, assisted their mother, Sarah, with peeling potatoes for the mashed potatoes. Sarah also made a delicious pumpkin pie, baking it to perfection in the oven.

As they sat down to eat, Helen asked everyone to share what they were thankful for. Emily said, "I'm thankful for my family's love." Ethan added, "And for Grandma's amazing cooking!" They all laughed.

After dinner, they watched football together, enjoying each other's company.

Comprehension Questions

1. Where did the Watsons gather for Thanksgiving?
2. What did Emily help Helen prepare?
3. What did Ethan help with?
4. What did they share before eating?
5. What did they do after dinner?

B. Identify the wrong word and correct the sentence

1. The turkey was very tasty.
2. My aunt is a very skilled cook.
3. Don't forget to preheat the oven before you add the stuffing.
4. This pumpkin pie is very sweet.
5. I'm afraid my father has never been very good at cooking.
6. You can buy this cranberry sauce in five different flavors.