

COMPARATIVES & SUPERLATIVES

Work with a partner. Fill in the gaps and discuss. Take turns to ask and answer.

You can help each other. Try to speak English only. Complete one sentence at a time and then discuss it with your partner.

1. Do you think it is nice to be the _____ (young) in the family?

2. Where do you think is the _____ (good) place to live?

3. Is it _____ (good) to go to a big city or a small town for a vacation?

4. Who sleeps the _____ (many) hours in your family?

5. What is the _____ (good) thing to do after school/work?

6. Do boys or girls have a _____ (good) life?

7. Do you think it is nice to be the _____ (old) child in the family?

8. Do you eat _____ (many) vegetables on the weekend or during the week?

9. When do you eat the _____ (many) fruit? What is your favorite fruit?

10. Is it _____ (interesting) to go to the cinema or the park? Why?

11. Which country is _____ (interesting) to visit: China or Thailand?

12. Is your English getting _____ (good)?

Teacher's Key

1. Do you think it is nice to be the youngest in the family?
2. Where do you think is the best place to live?
3. Is it better to go to a big city or a small town for a vacation?
4. Who sleeps the most hours in your family?
5. What is the best thing to do after school/work?
6. Do boys or girls have a better life?
7. Do you think it is nice to be the oldest child in the family?
8. Do you eat more vegetables on the weekend or during the week?
9. When do you eat the most fruit? What is your favorite fruit?
10. Is it more interesting to go to the cinema or the park? Why?
11. Which country is more interesting to visit, China or Thailand?
12. Is your English getting better?