

AUSTRALIA

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

Complete the sentences with the correct form of the adjective in parentheses.

Review the rules for forming comparatives (-er/more) and superlatives (-est/most) before completing the worksheet.

1. The Great Barrier Reef is _____ (long) coral reef system in the world.
2. Melbourne is _____ (culturally diverse) city in Australia.
3. The kangaroo hops _____ (fast) than the emu.
4. Uluru (Ayers Rock) is _____ (sacred) site for Indigenous Australians.
5. The Sydney Opera House is _____ (famous) building in Australia.
6. The Dingo Fence is _____ (long) fence in the world.
7. Tasmania has _____ (mild) winters compared to other Australian states.
8. The Great Ocean Road is _____ (scenic) drive in Australia.
9. The kookaburra's laugh is _____ (loud) than the cockatoo's call.
10. Mount Kosciuszko is _____ (high) mountain peak in Australia.

B. A Trip to Australia

Fill in the blanks with the correct pronoun, possessive pronoun, or possessive adjective.

The Jackson family had always dreamed of visiting Australia. Finally, they saved enough money and booked a trip. When they arrived, everyone was excited to explore the new sights. One of (1) _____ first stops was a wildlife sanctuary where they could see koalas up close.

Mr. Jackson said, "Look! The koalas are so cute!" Mrs. Jackson agreed and said (2) _____ children would love to hug one. At the entrance, the guide explained the rules and costs.

The Jacksons were eager to meet a koala, so (3) _____ paid the fee to hold one. Each member of the family got (4) _____ turn to hug a koala, and (5) _____ faces lit up with joy. (6) _____ youngest child, Lily, was a bit nervous at first, but (7) _____ eventually held (8) _____ koala carefully.

Afterward, the family took photos to remember (9) _____ special day. "This is a memory we'll never forget," Mr. Jackson told (10) _____ family. They all agreed that (11) _____ trip to Australia was worth every moment!

Teacher's Key

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

Complete the sentences with the correct form of the adjective in parentheses.

1. The Great Barrier Reef is the longest (long) coral reef system in the world.
2. Melbourne is the most culturally diverse (culturally diverse) city in Australia.
3. The kangaroo hops faster (fast) than the emu.
4. Uluru (Ayers Rock) is the most sacred (sacred) site for Indigenous Australians.
5. The Sydney Opera House is the most famous (famous) building in Australia.
6. The Dingo Fence is the longest (long) fence in the world.
7. Tasmania has milder (mild) winters compared to other Australian states.
8. The Great Ocean Road is the most scenic (scenic) drive in Australia.
9. The kookaburra's laugh is louder (loud) than the cockatoo's call.
10. Mount Kosciuszko is the highest (high) mountain peak in Australia.

B. A Trip to Australia

Fill in the blanks with the correct pronoun, possessive pronoun, or possessive adjective.

The Jackson family had always dreamed of visiting Australia. Finally, they saved enough money and booked a trip. When they arrived, everyone was excited to explore the new sights. One of (1) their first stops was a wildlife sanctuary where they could see koalas up close.

Mr. Jackson said, "Look! The koalas are so cute!" Mrs. Jackson agreed and said (2) their children would love to hug one. At the entrance, the guide explained the rules and costs. The Jacksons were eager to meet a koala, so (3) they paid the fee to hold one. Each member of the family got (4) their turn to hug a koala, and (5) their faces lit up with joy. (6) Their youngest child, Lily, was a bit nervous at first, but (7) she eventually held (8) her koala carefully.

Afterward, the family took photos to remember (9) their special day. "This is a memory we'll never forget," Mr. Jackson told (10) his family. They all agreed that (11) their trip to Australia was worth every moment!