

BLACK FRIDAY

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

Complete each sentence with the correct comparative / superlative form of the adjective.

1. Black Friday is _____ (popular) than other shopping days.
2. Electronics are some of the _____ (expensive) items on sale.
3. Some shoppers think online deals are _____ (good) than in-store deals.
4. People spend _____ (much) time shopping during holiday sales.
5. The _____ (busy) time for shopping is early in the morning on Black Friday.
6. Sales on Black Friday are often _____ (big) than those on Cyber Monday.
7. My friend found a _____ (cheap) TV than I did.
8. Clothing discounts are sometimes _____ (small) than electronics discounts.

B. Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Fill in each blank with “much,” “many,” “few,” or “little” as appropriate.

1. There are _____ stores offering discounts on Black Friday.
2. _____ people start their shopping early in the morning.
3. Some people spend _____ money than they planned.
4. I found _____ deals on electronics this year.
5. There was very _____ space left in the parking lot.
6. _____ shoppers look for clothing deals instead of electronics.
7. I didn't find _____ good deals on laptops.
8. Some shoppers have very _____ patience for long lines.

C. Shopping - Prepositions

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition:

1. Black Friday sales usually take place _____ the day after Thanksgiving.
2. Shoppers wait _____ line for hours to get the best deals.
3. The store opens _____ midnight to start the sale.
4. Discounts range _____ 20% to 50% off all items.
5. You can get a voucher _____ the store's website.
6. The promotion is valid _____ Friday only.
7. Prices drop significantly _____ last year's levels.
8. Customers can shop _____ the store or online.

Teacher's Key

A. Comparatives and Superlatives

Complete each sentence with the correct comparative or superlative form of the adjective in parentheses.

1. Black Friday is more popular than other shopping days.
2. Electronics are some of the most expensive items on sale.
3. Some shoppers think online deals are better than in-store deals.
4. People spend more time shopping during holiday sales.
5. The busiest time for shopping is early in the morning on Black Friday.
6. Sales on Black Friday are often bigger than those on Cyber Monday.
7. My friend found a cheaper TV than I did.
8. Clothing discounts are sometimes smaller than electronics discounts.

B. Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Fill in each blank with “much,” “many,” “few,” or “little” as appropriate.

1. There are many stores offering discounts on Black Friday.
2. Many people start their shopping early in the morning.
3. Some people spend more money than they planned.
4. I found few deals on electronics this year.
5. There was very little space left in the parking lot.
6. Many shoppers look for clothing deals instead of electronics.
7. I didn't find many good deals on laptops.
8. Some shoppers have very little patience for long lines.

C. Shopping - Prepositions

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition:

1. Black Friday sales usually take place on the day after Thanksgiving.
2. Shoppers wait in line for hours to get the best deals.
3. The store opens at midnight to start the sale.
4. Discounts range from 20% to 50% off all items.
5. You can get a voucher from the store's website.
6. The promotion is valid on Friday only.
7. Prices drop significantly from last year's levels.
8. Customers can shop at / in the store or online.