

MUSIC

Verb Tenses

Fill in the gaps with the correct verb form:

1. By the time I _____ (arrive) at the concert, the band _____ (start) playing.
2. If I _____ (know) the lyrics, I _____ (sing) along.
3. The guitarist _____ (practice) for months before the show.
4. The singer _____ (release) her new album next month.
5. The band _____ (tour) Europe last year.
6. I _____ (listen) to music every day.
7. If I _____ (have) tickets, I _____ (go) to the festival.
8. The music festival _____ (take) place every summer.
9. The musician _____ (compose) music for films.
10. By next year, the band _____ (perform) 100 shows.

Conditional Sentences

Fill in the gaps with the correct conditional form:

1. If I _____ (have) a guitar, I _____ (start) a band.
2. Unless the singer _____ (improve) her voice, she _____ (not pass) the audition.
3. If the concert _____ (be) tomorrow, we _____ (need) to prepare.
4. If I _____ (know) the song, I _____ (sing) it.
5. Unless the music _____ (be) loud, I _____ (not dance).
6. If the festival _____ (be) cancelled, we _____ (get) refunds.
7. If I _____ (win) tickets, I _____ (go) to the show.
8. If the musician _____ (practice) more, he _____ (become) professional.
9. Unless the band _____ (change) their style, they _____ (not succeed).
10. If I _____ (have) time, I _____ (learn) to play the piano.

Vocabulary Matching

Match the words to their definitions:

- | | |
|---------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. Melody | a) A style of music |
| 2. Rhythm | b) A person who writes music |
| 3. Harmony | c) A group of musicians |
| 4. Genre | d) A single performer |
| 5. Composer | e) A repeated phrase in a song |
| 6. Lyricist | f) The pattern of sounds |
| 7. Instrument | g) The combination of sounds |
| 8. Ensemble | h) The main theme of a song |
| 9. Solo | i) A person who writes song lyrics |
| 10. Chorus | j) A musical tool |

Reading Comprehension: The History of Rock Music

Read the text and answer the questions

Rock music originated in the United States in the 1950s. It evolved from blues, country, and folk music. The genre gained popularity with artists like Elvis Presley and Chuck Berry. In the 1960s, rock music split into sub-genres, with iconic bands like The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, and Led Zeppelin dominating the scene. The 1970s saw the rise of hard rock, exemplified by bands like Queen and Aerosmith. The 1980s brought alternative rock, led by artists like Michael Jackson and Guns N' Roses.

1. Where did rock music originate? _____
2. What genres influenced rock music? _____
3. Who were two popular rock artists in the 1950s?

4. What iconic bands emerged during the 1960s?

5. Which bands exemplified hard rock in the 1970s?

6. Who were two influential artists of the 1980s?

7. What is one characteristic that defines rock music's evolution?

Teacher's Key

Verb Tenses

Fill in the gaps with the correct verb form:

1. By the time I arrived (arrive) at the concert, the band had started (start) playing.
2. If I knew (know) the lyrics, I would sing (sing) along.
3. The guitarist has practiced (practice) for months before the show.
4. The singer will release (release) her new album next month.
5. The band toured (tour) Europe last year.
6. I listen (listen) to music every day.
7. If I had (have) tickets, I would go (go) to the festival.
8. The music festival takes (take) place every summer.
9. The musician composes (compose) music for films.
10. By next year, the band will have performed (perform) 100 shows.

Conditional Sentences

Fill in the gaps with the correct conditional form:

1. If I had (have) a guitar, I would start (start) a band.
2. Unless the singer improves (improve) her voice, she will not pass (not pass) the audition.
3. If the concert is (be) tomorrow, we will need (need) to prepare.
4. If I knew (know) the song, I would sing (sing) it.
5. Unless the music is (be) loud, I will not (not dance).
6. If the festival is (be) cancelled, we will (get) refunds.
7. If I win (win) tickets, I will go (go) to the show.
8. If the musician practices (practice) more, he will become (become) professional.
9. Unless the band changes (change) their style, they will (not succeed).
10. If I had (have) time, I would learn (learn) to play the piano.

Vocabulary Matching

Match the words to their definitions:

- | | | |
|---------------|-----------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. Melody | h | a) A style of music |
| 2. Rhythm | f | b) A person who writes music |
| 3. Harmony | g | c) A group of musicians |
| 4. Genre | a | d) A single performer |
| 5. Composer | b | e) A repeated phrase in a song |
| 6. Lyricist | i | f) The pattern of sounds |
| 7. Instrument | j | g) The combination of sounds |
| 8. Ensemble | c | h) The main theme of a song |
| 9. Solo | d | i) A person who writes song lyrics |
| 10. Chorus | e | j) A musical tool |

Reading Comprehension: The History of Rock Music

Read the text and answer the questions

Rock music originated in the United States in the 1950s. It evolved from blues, country, and folk music. The genre gained popularity with artists like Elvis Presley and Chuck Berry. In the 1960s, rock music split into sub-genres, with iconic bands like The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, and Led Zeppelin dominating the scene. The 1970s saw the rise of hard rock, exemplified by bands like Queen and Aerosmith. The 1980s brought alternative rock, led by artists like Michael Jackson and Guns N' Roses.

1. Where did rock music originate?
2. What genres influenced rock music?
3. Who were two popular rock artists in the 1950s?
4. What iconic bands emerged during the 1960s?
5. Which bands exemplified hard rock in the 1970s?
6. Who were two influential artists of the 1980s?
7. What is one characteristic that defines rock music's evolution?

Answer Key

1. The United States
2. Blues, country, and folk music
3. Elvis Presley and Chuck Berry
4. The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, and Led Zeppelin
5. Queen and Aerosmith
6. Michael Jackson and Guns N' Roses
7. Constant change and diversification