B. Line-Up Challenge Prompts

Talk with your classmates and create a group. Line up in order based on each of the following. Discuss your choices together in English.

1. Line up based on the size of your breakfast today (smallest to biggest)
2. Line up in order of how often you take coffee breaks (rarely to daily)
3. Line up by your energy levels right now (tired to very energetic)
4. Line up based on the color of your shoes (lightest to darkest color)
5. Line up according to how long your lunch break usually is (shortest to longest)
6. Line up based on how far you travel to work/school (closest to farthest)
7. Line up in order of how many cups of water you drink each day (fewest to most)
8. Line up based on your favorite time to take a break (earliest to latest in the day)
9. Line up according to how many languages you can speak (fewest to most)
10. Line up based on how many siblings you have (fewest to most)
11. Line up in order of who woke up earliest to latest today
12. Line up based on the last time you had a snack (most recent to longest ago)
13. Line up according to how spicy you like your food (mild to very spicy)
14. Line up based on how often you check your phone during breaks (rarely to constantly)
15. Line up in order of how long you've been studying English (shortest to longest time)

Remember: Ask questions like "How many cups of water do you drink?" or "What time did you wake up today?" to find your place in line. Use comparatives like "I drink more water than you" or "My breakfast was bigger than yours" to determine the correct order.
