

JOIN A CLUB

A. Introduction - Context & Purpose

Joining a club is a great way to make friends and have fun! In this lesson, you will practice talking about clubs and inviting others to join.

Key Vocabulary

- Types of Clubs (sports club, music club, book club, art club, drama club, etc.)
- Common Actions (sign up, join, participate, organize, invite, create, lead, etc.)
- Club Roles (member, leader, captain, organizer, coach, etc.)

B. Essential Grammar & Model Verbs

Using 'Can' and 'Should' for Advice and Possibilities

- "You can make new friends in a club."
- "You should join a club that you enjoy."

Using 'Would' for Invitations

- "Would you like to join my club?"
- "I would love to join the drama club!"

Using 'Have to' and 'Don't have to' for Rules

- "Members have to attend meetings every week."
- "You don't have to be good at drawing to join the art club."

C. Simple Dialogue - Role-Play

Students complete the dialogue using the lesson vocabulary:

A: "Hey! I'm starting a cooking club. Would you like to join?"

B: "That sounds fun! What do we do in the club?"

A: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

A: "We meet every Friday and learn new recipes."

B: "Great! How can I join?"

Complete the dialogue for the clubs:

Sports Club: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

Music Club: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

Art Club: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

Drama Club: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

Book Club: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

Tennis Club: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

Teacher's Key

C. Simple Dialogue - Role-Play

Students complete the dialogue using the lesson vocabulary:

A: "Hey! I'm starting a cooking club. Would you like to join?"

B: "That sounds fun! What do we do in the club?"

A: "We meet every _____ and learn _____."

A: "We meet every Friday and learn new recipes."

B: "Great! How can I join?"

Complete the dialogue for the clubs:

Sports Club	play games / practice skills
Music Club	play instruments / sing songs
Art Club	paint pictures / learn techniques
Drama Club	act in plays / practice scripts
Book Club	read books / talk about stories