2. Which answer surprised you the most? Why?
3. Did anyone have a unique holiday story? What was it?
4. Which holiday experience do you want to try someday?
5. What holiday tradition sounded the most interesting?
6. Which type of transportation did most students use for traveling?
7. Did you meet someone with the same holiday experience as you?
8. How did asking these questions help you practice speaking?
9. What was the most difficult question to ask? Why?
10. What did you enjoy most about this activity?

C. Line-Up Challenge

How to Play

1. Form a group of 4–5 students.
2. Read a question from the list.
3. As a group, discuss and decide who fits the description best.
4. Line up in order—the person who matches the prompt the most should stand at the front, and the person who matches it the least should stand at the back.
5. Once lined up, each student explains their position to the group!

Line-Up Questions

For each question, decide the order within your group!

1. Who had the longest vacation?
2. Who spent the most hours on a train?
3. Who had the longest flight?
4. Who visited the most different places on their last trip?
5. Who bought the most souvenirs?
6. Who tried the most new foods while traveling?
7. Who stayed in the biggest hotel?
8. Who visited a country farthest from home?
9. Who traveled with the most people on their holiday?
10. Who took the most holiday photos?
