

underline the correct word.

MUCH & MANY

Decide whether you have to use much or many. Underline the correct word.

1. How many/much letters are there in the alphabet?
2. How much/many pencils are in your bag?
3. How much/many music do you listen to on a weekend?
4. How much/many songs do you have in your playlist?
5. How much/many pictures do you have on your bedroom wall?
6. How much/many words do you know in English?
7. How much/many girls are there in this class?
8. How much/many tea can you drink in one day?
9. How much/many rice did your mother cook last week?
10. How much/many air do you breathe in every day?

My School - Underline the correct word.

I like my school very many/much. There are many/much students in my school. Some students don't study many/much but they can all speak English. During the week we have many/much sports activities and many/much students take part in these activities. They don't speak many/much English when they do sports, but many/much students do try to practice their English when they do sports.

In summer there are many/much days that we can't do sports because it rains too many/much. Many/Much students go home early and finish their homework before dinner. If they have too many/much homework, this is a good chance to finish it all and have a good night's sleep.

Many/Much - Underline the correct word.

1. I have been to Barcelona many/much times.
2. There are many/much shops in Barcelona.
3. Thank you so many/much for my birthday present!
4. My parents don't have many/much money.
5. How many/much rooms are there in your house?
6. Many/Much students were sick last week.
7. Were there many/much people at the football match?
8. We are going to miss the train. We don't have many/much time.
9. How many/much sugar do we need?
10. My dad drinks too many/much coffee.
11. How many/much cups of coffee do you drink every day?
12. I am early today. There wasn't many/much traffic.

Teachers Key

Decide whether you have to use much or many. Underline the correct word.

1. How many letters are there in the alphabet?
2. How many pencils are in your bag?
3. How much music do you listen to on a weekend?
4. How many songs do you have in your playlist?
5. How many pictures do you have on your bedroom wall?
6. How many words do you know in English?
7. How many girls are there in this class?
8. How much tea can you drink in one day?
9. How much rice did your mother cook last week?
10. How much air do you breathe in every day?

My School - Underline the correct word.

I like my school very much. There are many students in my school. Some students don't study much but they can all speak English. During the week we have many sports activities and many students take part in these activities. They don't speak much English when they do sports, but many students do try to practice their English when they do sports.

In summer there are many days that we can't do sports because it rains too much. Many students go home early and finish their homework before dinner. If they have too much homework, this is a good chance to finish it all and have a good night's sleep.

Many/Much - Underline the correct word.

1. I have been to Barcelona many times.
2. There are many shops in Barcelona.
3. Thank you so much for my birthday present!
4. My parents don't have much money.
5. How many rooms are there in your house?
6. Many students were sick last week.
7. Were there many people at the football match?
8. We are going to miss the train. We don't have much time.
9. How much sugar do we need?
10. My dad drinks too much coffee.
11. How many cups of coffee do you drink every day?
12. I am early today. There wasn't much traffic.