

INTRODUCTIONS

1. Write some sentences about your family.
2. Introduce each family member and say if they are older or younger than you, what their jobs are, where they live, and what they like to do in their free time.
3. You can also write about their good and bad habits [things they like to do].
4. If you have any other interesting things to say about them, you can also write about them.

Name: _____

Homework

Date: _____

Assignment 2: Create Your Personal Introduction

Write three different introductions for yourself for the following situations:

1. Formal: A job interview introduction (3-5 sentences)
2. Semi-formal: Introducing yourself to a new teacher (3-5 sentences)
3. Casual: Meeting new friends at an international student party (3-5 sentences)

Make sure each introduction has:

- An appropriate greeting
- Your name
- Relevant background information for the situation
- At least one question to continue the conversation

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Assignment 3: Self-Introduction Video/Audio Recording

Record a 1-2 minute video or audio clip introducing yourself to the class. Include:

- A greeting
- Your name and where you're from
- Why you're learning English
- Your interests or hobbies
- Your goals for this English course
- A closing statement

Assignment 4: Introduction Email

Write an email introducing yourself to ONE of the following:

1. A new online language exchange partner
2. A host family you'll be staying with during a study abroad program
3. A new teacher for an online course you're taking

Your email should:

- Have an appropriate subject line
- Include a proper greeting
- Introduce yourself clearly
- Explain why you're writing
- Include some personal information relevant to the situation
- Ask 2-3 questions
- End with an appropriate closing
- Be 100-150 words long

Subject:

Assignment 5: Self-Assessment

After completing your chosen assignment(s), answer these reflection questions:

1. What new vocabulary or phrases did you learn about introductions?

2. What aspects of introductions do you feel confident about?

3. What aspects do you still need to practice?

4. How can you use what you've learned in real-life situations?
