B. Prices

Do you know how to say prices in English?

The easiest, and most useful way, is to say the first number (before the period/full stop) and then the second number (the "cents" after the full stop).

Practice saying these prices (in $) with your partner. The first one has been done for you.

1.	$5.50 - Five fifty.	5. $19.95
2.	$49.99	6. $113.79
3.	$50.00	7. $0.75
4.	$3.45	8. $1249.55

You can also say the words euros and cents in the price (usually with bigger numbers).

9.	€545.50 - five hundred and forty-five euros and 50 cents.
10.	€30.80
11.	€49.50
12.	€2.25

C. Price Listening Challenge

The teacher will read each price aloud. Listen carefully and write what you hear.

Some prices are in different currencies, and a few might be tricky!

Tip: Listen to how prices are said, including cents, whole numbers, and large amounts.

Write down the price you hear:

1. Inis m	ieai costs	(Peru 🚺)
2. The ja	cket is	(USA 🥌)
3. The fli	ght ticket costs	(Europe 💷)
4. This la	ptop is	(Japan 💌)
5. The sh	oes are	(UK 🚟)
6. This co	offee costs	(Brazil 🙋)
7. The re	nt is	(Mexico 🛂)
8. The ca	ar costs	(South Korea 🕬)
9. This b	ook is	(Switzerland 💶)
10. The m	obile phone costs	(USA 鰢
11. The wa	atch is	(India 🖾)
-	ner last night was
After the listening, compare answers with a partner and see how many you got right!

D. Role-Play – Shopping Conversations with Prices

Work with a partner. One of you is the customer, and one is the cashier.

Practice Conversations:

Example 1 - Buying Groceries

Customer: "Excuse me, how much is this bag of rice?"

Cashier: "It costs 15 dollars and 20 cents."

Customer: "Okay, here is 20 dollars. How much change do I get?"

Cashier: "Your change is 4 dollars and 80 cents."

Example 2 - Buying a Shirt

Customer: "I like this shirt! How much does it cost?"

Cashier: "It's 35 dollars exactly."

Customer: "Can I pay with my credit card?"

Cashier: "Yes, we accept cards."

Example 3 – Asking About a Discount

Customer: "I love this jacket! How much is it?"

Cashier: "It's 120 dollars."

Customer: "That's expensive! Can I get a discount?"

Cashier: "We can give you a 10% discount, so the new price is 108 dollars."
