

MONEY

A. Countable and Uncountable Nouns Sorting

Write each word in the correct column: Countable or Uncountable.

Coin	Cash	Debt	Banknote	Loan
Wealth	Dollar	Price	Penny	Credit

Countable and Uncountable Chart

Countable Nouns		Uncountable Nouns
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

B. Fill-in-the-Gaps - Money & Possession

Fill the gaps with the correct pronoun, possessive pronoun, or possessive adjective.

Maria and Juan love shopping. _____ (They / Them) always look for discounts before buying anything. Last week, Juan bought a new phone. The phone is _____ (his / him), and he paid for it with _____ (his / he) savings. Maria wanted a laptop, but _____ (she / her) didn't have enough money. So, Juan said, "You can borrow _____ (my / mine) laptop until you buy _____ (yours / your) own." Later, Maria and Juan went to the mall. "Look at this wallet!" Maria said. "It's very expensive, but _____ (I / me) really like it." Juan smiled. "Well, if you save enough, it can be _____ (your / yours) someday!"

C. Question Formation - Use the words given to form a complete question.

Example: where / your television / ? Where is your television?

- how much / this jacket / ? _____
- where / your wallet / ? _____
- who / give / you money / ? _____
- when / you / pay / rent / ? _____
- why / save / money / ? _____
- what / most expensive thing / you own / ? _____
- how often / you / go shopping / ? _____
- which / bank / good / for saving / ? _____

Teacher's Key

Countable and Uncountable Chart

Countable Nouns	Uncountable Nouns
Coin	Cash
Banknote	Debt
Dollar	Loan
Penny	Wealth
Price	Credit

B. Fill-in-the-Gaps - Money & Possession

Maria and Juan love shopping. They (They / Them) always look for discounts before buying anything. Last week, Juan bought a new phone. The phone is his (his / him), and he paid for it with his (his / he) savings. Maria wanted a laptop, but she (she / her) didn't have enough money. So, Juan said, "You can borrow my (my / mine) laptop until you buy your (yours / your) own."

Later, Maria and Juan went to the mall. "Look at this wallet!" Maria said. "It's very expensive, but I (I / me) really like it." Juan smiled. "Well, if you save enough, it can be yours (your / yours) someday!"