

MUCH & MANY

A. Would You Rather?

Read each sentence and choose an option. Then, explain why you made your choice!

1. Would you rather eat too much chocolate or too many cookies?
2. Would you rather carry many heavy books or drink much bitter coffee?
3. Would you rather spend much time studying or attend many fun events?
4. Would you rather have many friends or much free time?
5. Would you rather eat much spicy food or many sweet desserts?
6. Would you rather buy many clothes or have much money?
7. Would you rather drink much soda or eat many snacks?
8. Would you rather spend much energy exercising or complete many relaxing activities?
9. Would you rather write many essays or answer much difficult math questions?
10. Would you rather watch many movies or read many fantasy books?
11. Would you rather use too much sunscreen or wear many hats?
12. Would you rather own many pets or take care of many houseplants?

B. WH Questions - Fill the Gaps

Fill in the blanks with the correct WH-question word (who, what, when, where, why, how) and use much or many correctly.

1. _____ apples do you eat in a week?
2. _____ do you need so much sugar for baking?
3. _____ did you buy many gifts for your family?
4. _____ do you spend so much time studying?
5. _____ are many restaurants with vegetarian options?
6. _____ do you need much money to travel?
7. _____ books do you want to borrow from the library?
8. _____ did you bring many pencils to class?
9. _____ do people drink too much coffee in the morning?
10. _____ do you see many birds near the park?
11. _____ does he use much sunscreen at the beach?
12. _____ do we need many chairs for the party?

Teacher's Key

B. WH Questions - Fill the Gaps

1. How many apples do you eat in a week?
2. Why do you need so much sugar for baking?
3. When did you buy many gifts for your family?
4. Why do you spend so much time studying?
5. Where are many restaurants with vegetarian options?
6. Why do you need much money to travel?
7. How many books do you want to borrow from the library?
8. Why did you bring many pencils to class?
9. Why do people drink too much coffee in the morning?
10. Where do you see many birds near the park?
11. Why does he use much sunscreen at the beach?
12. How many chairs do we need for the party?