

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

A. Adverbs Of Frequency

Use the adverbs and write true sentences about the Transport that you use.

Example: I usually go to the beach by subway.

I often go to the park by bicycle.

Frequency	Adverb	Adverb of frequency sentences
100%	always	_____
90%	usually	_____
50%	sometimes	_____
30%	occasionally	_____
0%	never	_____

B. Fill the Gaps: Pronouns and Possessives

Read the passage about using public transport. Choose the correct word for each blank: a pronoun (e.g., I, he, them), a possessive adjective (e.g., my, their, her), or a possessive pronoun (e.g., mine, hers, yours).

Hello! My name is Alex. _____ (I/My/Mine) live in a big city. _____ (I/My/Mine) use public transport every day. _____ (It/Its) is very convenient. _____ (My/Mine) favorite way to travel is by subway. _____ (It/Its) is usually fast.

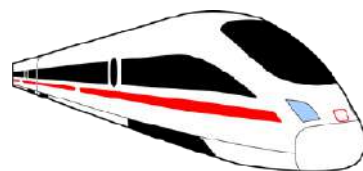

My friend, Maria, and _____ (I/me) often take the bus. The bus driver is always friendly to _____ (we/us). Sometimes, _____ (he/him) says hello to _____ (we/us). Maria says _____ (she/her/hers) bus stop is near _____ (she/her/hers) home. That tram is always on time.

One day, I found a ticket on the bus. I asked Maria, "Is this ticket _____ (you/your/yours)?" She said, "No, it's not _____ (my/mine)." Then I saw two other passengers. Maybe it was _____ (they/their/theirs) ticket.

C. My Public Transport Predictions

Complete each sentence with will or won't and your own idea about public transport. Share your answers with a partner.

- Next year I will / won't take the bus to work.
- Next holiday, I will / won't travel by train to...
- Tomorrow, I will / won't use a taxi because...
- My city's public transport system will / won't be better in five years.
- I will / won't learn about my city's subway map next week.
- My friends and I will / won't use public transport for our next trip.
- The price of bus tickets will / won't go up next month.
- I will / won't buy a monthly pass for the train.

Teacher's Key

B. Fill the Gaps: Pronouns and Possessives

Read the passage about using public transport. Choose the correct word for each blank: a pronoun (e.g., I, he, them), a possessive adjective (e.g., my, their, her), or a possessive pronoun (e.g., mine, hers, yours).

Hello! My name is Alex. _____ (I/My/Mine) live in a big city. _____ (I/My/Mine) use public transport every day. _____ (It/Its) is very convenient. _____ (My/Mine) favorite way to travel is by subway. _____ (It/Its) is usually fast.

My friend, Maria, and _____ (I/me) often take the bus. The bus driver is always friendly to _____ (we/us). Sometimes, _____ (he/him) says hello to _____ (we/us). Maria says _____ (she/her/hers) bus stop is near _____ (she/her/hers) home. That tram is always on time.

One day, I found a ticket on the bus. I asked Maria, "Is this ticket _____ (you/your/yours)?" She said, "No, it's not _____ (my/mine)." Then I saw two other passengers. Maybe it was _____ (they/their/theirs) ticket.

Fill the G Gaps: Pronouns and Possessives

Hello! My name is Alex. I live in a big city. I use public transport every day. It is very convenient. My favorite way to travel is by subway. It is usually fast.

My friend, Maria, and I often take the bus. The bus driver is always friendly to us. Sometimes, he says hello to us. Maria says her bus stop is near her home. That tram is always on time.

One day, I found a ticket on the bus. I asked Maria, "Is this ticket yours?" She said, "No, it's not mine." Then I saw two other passengers. Maybe it was their ticket.