

TRAIN JOURNEY

A. What Am I?

Choose a word from the word bank and complete the sentences.

ticket conductor bunk bed car compartment dining car view attraction online

1. You need to buy me if you want to travel by train.
2. On the train, you sleep on me.
3. You can eat your breakfast in me.
4. It is easy to buy your tickets through me.
5. You see me when you look outside the window of the train.
6. I am your room on a train.
7. When you visit a city, you can see me, i.e. The Eiffel Tower.
8. I am the person who checks that you have a ticket.
9. You can travel with me inside a city.

B. Grammar Focus: Much & Many

Complete each sentence with the correct word: much or many.

1. How _____ passengers are on the train?
2. There isn't _____ noise in our compartment.
3. How _____ luggage do you have?
4. I have _____ questions about the journey.
5. There was not _____ time to see Paris.
6. The dining car has _____ tables.
7. We don't have _____ food left.
8. How _____ money did the ticket cost?

C. WH-Questions

Read the story "A Train Journey" again. Answer these questions using information from the story.

1. _____ is taking a train journey?
2. _____ kind of beds will the children sleep on?
3. _____ is the departure point for the train?
4. _____ will the family eat meals on the train?
5. _____ does Dad say it's better to travel light?
6. _____ will the conductor do when he makes his rounds?
7. _____ long will the family spend in Paris?
8. _____ does the writer like to do on the train?

Teacher's Key

- | | |
|---------------|----------------|
| 1. ticket | 2. bunk beds |
| 3. dining car | 4. online |
| 5. view | 6. compartment |
| 7. attraction | 8. conductor |
| 9. car | |

What Am I?

1. You need to buy me if you want to travel by train.
2. On the train, you sleep on me.
3. You can eat your breakfast in me.
4. It is easy to buy your tickets through me.
5. You see me when you look outside the window of the train.
6. I am your room on a train.
7. When you visit a city, you can see me, i.e. The Eiffel Tower.
8. I am the person who checks that you have a ticket.
9. You can travel with me inside a city.

Grammar Focus: Much & Many

1. How many passengers are on the train?
2. There isn't much noise in our compartment.
3. How much luggage do you have?
4. I have many questions about the journey.
5. There was not much time to see Paris.
6. The dining car has many tables.
7. We don't have much food left.
8. How much money did the ticket cost?

C. WH-Questions

1. Who is taking a train journey?
2. What kind of beds will the children sleep on?
3. Where is the departure point for the train?
4. When will the family eat meals on the train?
5. Why does Dad say it's better to travel light?
6. What will the conductor do when he makes his rounds?
7. How long will the family spend in Paris?
8. What does the writer like to do on the train?