

A BAKER'S TALE

Student A Questions

1. Do you enjoy baking or cooking? Why or why not?
2. What is your favorite food that is baked, like bread, cake, or cookies?
3. Have you ever visited a bakery? What was it like?
4. Do you think baking is an art or a science? Explain your answer.
5. What kind of stories do you imagine might happen in a bakery?
6. If you could create a new kind of pastry or bread, what would it be like?

Student B Questions

1. What kind of smells do you associate with a bakery?
2. Is there a special food from your childhood that makes you feel nostalgic?
3. Do you prefer sweet or savory baked goods? Why?
4. What do you think makes a good baker?
5. How important do you think tradition is in baking?
6. Imagine you have a secret family recipe. Would you share it or keep it a secret?

Let's Get Ready to Read!

Here are some words you'll hear in "A Baker's Tale." Read them and then complete the sentences below.

- bake (v.) - to cook food in an oven.
- bread (n.) - a common food made from flour and water, baked.
- oven (n.) - a hot box for baking or cooking food.
- smell (n.) - the nice or bad odor of something.
- warm (adj.) - a little hot, not cold.
- sweet (adj.) - tastes like sugar.

Fill The Gaps

Complete the sentences using the vocabulary words above:

1. I love the _____ of fresh cookies.
2. My mom likes to _____ cakes for birthdays.
3. We put the pizza in the _____ to cook.
4. This soup is nice and _____ on a cold day.
5. Chocolate is a very _____ taste.
6. The baker took the fresh _____ out of the oven.

Teacher's Key

Fill The Gaps

Complete the sentences using the vocabulary words above:

1. I love the smell of fresh cookies.
2. My mom likes to bake cakes for birthdays.
3. We put the pizza in the oven to cook.
4. This soup is nice and warm on a cold day.
5. Chocolate is a very sweet taste.
6. The baker took the fresh bread out of the oven.