

WINDOW SHOPPING

Mall Walk & Grammar Focus

Imagine you are walking through a big shopping mall with a friend. You see many different shops and displays. The mall is busy, and there's soft music playing. Some shops have bright lights, and others are more quiet. You see clothes, shoes, toys, and lots of interesting things. It's a great place to spend time and just look!

Activity 1: Mall Sightings - Countable or Uncountable?

Read the description above and think about a mall. Look at the words below. Can you count them (like 1, 2, 3...)?

Write Countable or Uncountable.

1. mall: _____
2. music: _____
3. shops: _____
4. lights: _____
5. clothes: _____
6. shoes: _____
7. money: _____
8. fun: _____

Activity 2: Compare the Shops! - Comparatives & Superlatives

Imagine two shops you see in the mall, Shop A and Shop B. Use the words in () to complete the sentences with the correct comparative or superlative form.

1. Shop A has a _____ (colorful) window display than Shop B.
2. The shoes in Shop A are the _____ (expensive) in the mall.
3. Shop B has _____ (good) prices than Shop A.
4. The dresses in this boutique are _____ (pretty) than the ones next door.
5. This is the _____ (busy) day for shopping.
6. The smallest bag is _____ (easy) to carry than the big one.
7. That red shirt is the _____ (new) style this season.
8. Window shopping is _____ (relaxing) than actual buying.

Teacher's Key

Window Shopping - Mall Walk & Grammar Focus

Activity 1: Mall Sightings - Countable or Uncountable?

1. mall: Countable
2. music: Uncountable
3. shops: Countable
4. lights: Countable
5. clothes: Uncountable
6. shoes: Countable
7. money: Uncountable
8. fun: Uncountable

Activity 2: Compare the Shops! - Comparatives & Superlatives

1. Shop A has a more colorful (colorful) window display than Shop B.
2. The shoes in Shop A are the most expensive (expensive) in the mall.
3. Shop B has better (good) prices than Shop A.
4. The dresses in this boutique are prettier (pretty) than the ones next door.
5. This is the busiest (busy) day for shopping.
6. The smallest bag is easier (easy) to carry than the big one.
7. That red shirt is the newest (new) style this season.
8. Window shopping is more relaxing (relaxing) than actual buying.