

BURGER & CHIPS

Activity 1: Much vs. Many – Fill in the Blanks

Choose much or many to complete each sentence.

1. There are _____ fries on the plate.
2. I don't have _____ ketchup left in the bottle.
3. How _____ burgers do we need for the party?
4. Sandy's dad adds _____ sauce to his special burger.
5. There aren't _____ napkins on the table.
6. Do we need _____ onions for the burgers?
7. There is too _____ mayonnaise on my fries!
8. I don't think we need _____ soda for the meal.

Activity 2: This, That, These, Those – Match the Sentence

Match the correct demonstrative word to the sentence.

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| 1. _____ burger in front of me is delicious. | (Near, singular) |
| 2. _____ fries over there look cold. | (Far, plural) |
| 3. _____ is my favorite fast-food place. | (Near, singular) |
| 4. _____ are my fries—don't eat them! | (Near, plural) |
| 5. _____ burger on the counter is yours. | (Far, singular) |
| 6. _____ are the best burgers on the menu. | (Near, plural) |
| 7. _____ restaurant across the street is famous. | (Far, singular) |
| 8. _____ fries on the plate smell amazing! | (Near, plural) |

Activity 3: Referring to Nouns with Pronouns & Possessives

Rewrite the sentences using the correct pronoun or possessive word.

Example: ☒ This is Sandy burger. ☐ This is her burger.

1. This is Jake soda. _____
2. Those are Leo fries. _____
3. That burger belongs to Mia. _____
4. These are Sandy chips. _____
5. That waiter is our friend. _____
6. This is Dad's secret sauce. _____
7. These napkins are Tom's. _____
8. That drink is Sara's favorite. _____

Activity 4: Choose the Correct Word – Much, Many, This, That, These, Those

Choose the correct word from the brackets to complete each sentence.

1. (Much / Many) people love eating fast food.
2. (This / That) is my favorite type of burger.
3. We ordered (many / much) fries for the table.
4. (These / Those) drinks are too warm to enjoy.
5. I don't need (many / much) mustard on my burger.
6. (This / These) restaurant serves the best burgers!
7. There isn't (many / much) ketchup left.
8. (That / Those) fries over there are very salty.

Teacher's Key

Activity 1: Much vs. Many – Fill in the Blanks

1. There are many fries on the plate.
2. I don't have much ketchup left in the bottle.
3. How many burgers do we need for the party?
4. Sandy's dad adds much sauce to his special burger.
5. There aren't many napkins on the table.
6. Do we need many onions for the burgers?
7. There is too much mayonnaise on my fries!
8. I don't think we need much soda for the meal.

Activity 2: This, That, These, Those – Match the Sentence

1. This burger in front of me is delicious. (Near, singular)
2. Those fries over there look cold. (Far, plural)
3. This is my favorite fast-food place. (Near, singular)
4. These are my fries—don't eat them! (Near, plural)
5. That burger on the counter is yours. (Far, singular)
6. These are the best burgers on the menu. (Near, plural)
7. That restaurant across the street is famous. (Far, singular)
8. These fries on the plate smell amazing! (Near, plural)

Activity 3: Referring to Nouns with Pronouns & Possessives

1. This is his soda.
2. Those are his fries.
3. That burger belongs to her.
4. These are her chips.
5. That waiter is our friend.
6. This is his secret sauce.
7. These napkins are his.
8. That drink is her favorite.

Activity 4: Choose the Correct Word – Much, Many, This, That, These, Those

1. Many people love eating fast food.
2. This is my favorite type of burger.
3. We ordered many fries for the table.
4. Those drinks are too warm to enjoy.
5. I don't need much mustard on my burger.
6. This restaurant serves the best burgers!
7. There isn't much ketchup left.
8. Those fries over there are very salty.