

SWEET TREATS, GREAT FRIENDS

Countable & Uncountable Nouns

Part 1: Countable or Uncountable?

Look at the words from the story. Write 'C' if the noun is Countable (you can count it, e.g., one apple, two apples). Write 'U' if the noun is Uncountable (you cannot count it, e.g., water, sugar).

1. ice cream _____
2. cone _____
3. sugar _____
4. cherry _____
5. water _____
6. topping _____
7. menu _____
8. money _____

Part 2: Use "a," "an," or "some"

Complete each sentence with a, an, or some.

1. Elara wants _____ scoop of ice cream.
2. Mia wants _____ delicious sundae.
3. They need _____ menu to choose.
4. There is _____ water in the glass.
5. Sofia wants _____ apple for her fruit tart.
6. We need _____ sugar for the coffee.
7. They found _____ cool place inside the café.
8. They have _____ friends to hang out with.

Part 3: Use "some" or "any"

Complete each sentence with some or any.

1. Is there _____ ice cream left?
2. No, there isn't _____ ice cream left.
3. Yes, there is _____ ice cream.
4. Do you have _____ cherries for my sundae?
5. They don't have _____ lemon flavor.
6. She wants _____ sprinkles on her ice cream.
7. We don't have _____ time to wait.
8. There are _____ tables by the window.

Teacher's Key

Part 1: Countable or Uncountable?

1. ice cream U (Uncountable - you count "scoops" or "bowls" of ice cream)
2. cone C (Countable - one cone, two cones)
3. sugar U (Uncountable - you count "spoons" or "bags" of sugar)
4. cherry C (Countable - one cherry, two cherries)
5. water U (Uncountable - you count "glasses" or "bottles" of water)
6. topping C (Countable - one topping, many toppings)
7. menu C (Countable - one menu, two menus)
8. money U (Uncountable - you count "dollars" or "coins," but "money" itself is uncountable)

Part 2: Use "a," "an," or "some"

1. Elara wants a scoop of ice cream.
2. Mia wants a delicious sundae.
3. They need a menu to choose.
4. There is some water in the glass.
5. Sofia wants an apple for her fruit tart.
6. We need some sugar for the coffee.
7. They found a cool place inside the café.
8. They have some friends to hang out with.

Part 3: Use "some" or "any"

1. Is there any ice cream left?
2. No, there isn't any ice cream left.
3. Yes, there is some ice cream.
4. Do you have any cherries for my sundae?
5. They don't have any lemon flavor.
6. She wants some sprinkles on her ice cream.
7. We don't have any time to wait.
8. There are some tables by the window.