

A BAKER'S TALE

"How Many or How Much?"

Activity 1: Countable or Uncountable Review

Before we start, remember:

- Many is for things you can count (e.g., cookies, cakes).
- Much is for things you cannot count (e.g., bread, flour).

Read the word. Write "Many" or "Much" next to it.

1. _____ cookies
2. _____ bread
3. _____ customers
4. _____ milk
5. _____ muffins
6. _____ water
7. _____ sugar
8. _____ pies

Activity 2: Complete the Sentences

Complete the sentences using "much" or "many." Example: Mr. Ben bakes many cakes.

1. How _____ bread do you want?
2. There are _____ children at the bakery.
3. We don't have _____ flour left.
4. Lily eats _____ cookies.
5. Is there _____ milk in the fridge?
6. Mr. Ben has _____ work to do.
7. Are there _____ ovens in the bakery?
8. I need _____ money for a big cake.

Activity 3: Ask and Answer

Work with a partner. Ask the questions using "How much?" or "How many?". Then answer.

1. (cookies / you eat?)

Q: How _____ cookies do you eat?

A: I eat _____ cookies.

2. (bread / you like?)

Q: How _____ bread do you like?

A: I like _____ bread.

3. (sugar / in your coffee?)

Q: How _____ sugar is in your coffee?

A: There is _____ sugar.

4. (friends / you have?)

Q: How _____ friends do you have?

A: I have _____ friends.

Teacher's Key

Activity 1: Countable or Uncountable Review

1. Many cookies
2. Much bread
3. Many customers
4. Much milk
5. Many muffins
6. Much water
7. Much sugar
8. Many pies

Activity 2: Complete the Sentences

1. How much bread do you want?
2. There are many children at the bakery.
3. We don't have much flour left.
4. Lily eats many cookies.
5. Is there much milk in the fridge?
6. Mr. Ben has much work to do.
7. Are there many ovens in the bakery?
8. I need much money for a big cake.

Activity 3: Ask and Answer

- Answers will vary for the "A" part, but the "Q" part should be as follows:
 1. Q: How many cookies do you eat?
 2. Q: How much bread do you like?
 3. Q: How much sugar is in your coffee?
 4. Q: How many friends do you have?