

HOW TO MAKE A SANDWICH

What is a Verb? What is a Noun?

- A verb is an action word. It is something you do.
 - Examples: get, put, cut
- A noun is a word for a person, place, or thing.
 - Examples: bread, sandwich, kitchen

Imperative Verbs

An imperative verb gives a command or instruction. "How to..." lessons use these verbs. Complete the sentences using the verbs from the word bank.

Word Bank: get / put / add / cut / eat

1. _____ two slices of bread.
2. _____ some cheese on the bread.
3. _____ some sauce on the sandwich.
4. _____ the sandwich in half.
5. _____ your sandwich.

Verbs or Nouns?

Read the words below. Write the words in the correct box.

Words: slice / cut / bread / sauce / make / meat / eat / plate / wash / knife

Verbs (Actions)	Nouns (Things)

Match the Verbs and Nouns

Draw a line to match the verb with the noun it goes with.

Verbs	Nouns
Cut	the cheese on
Get	your hands
Put	the sandwich
Spread	the bread
Wash	the sauce

Teacher's Key

Imperative Verbs

1. get
2. put
3. add
4. cut
5. eat

Verbs or Nouns?

Read the words below. Write the words in the correct box.

Words: slice / cut / bread / sauce / make / meat / eat / plate / wash / knife

Verbs (Actions)	Nouns (Things)
cut	bread
slice	sauce
make	meat
eat	plate
wash	knife

Match the Verbs and Nouns Answers

- Cut the sandwich
- Get the bread
- Put the cheese on
- Spread the sauce
- Wash your hands