

MY BROTHER IS SO ANNOYING

© talkmor.com

PDF 1 – My Brother Is So Annoying – Warm-up & Reading

Warm-up (10 minutes)

Questions (pair work – 4 minutes)

1. Do you have a brother or sister?
2. What things do brothers or sisters sometimes do that are annoying?
3. How do you feel when someone annoys you while you are studying or working?

Fun Warm-up Activity – “Annoying or Not?” (6 minutes)

Walk around and ask: “Is this annoying?” and note your classmates’ answers.

- Plays loud music _____
- Takes your things without asking _____
- Talks all the time when you want quiet _____
- Makes funny faces behind you _____
- Borrows your clothes _____

Quick feedback.

Reading – Letter to Dear AI (Complaint)

Dear AI,

My name is Emma. I have a big problem. My brother Jake is so annoying! Yesterday I was studying at my desk. I needed to be quiet for my English test. But Jake came into my room with his big speaker. He played loud music and danced behind me. He said “Hey! Guess what?!” again and again. I was very annoyed.

He always does this. He takes my pens, makes noise, and laughs when I get angry. I love my brother, but sometimes I want to scream!

What can I do?

From Emma

Comprehension Questions

1. Who is annoying?
2. What was Emma doing?
3. What did Jake do with the speaker?
4. What does Jake always say?
5. How does Emma feel?
6. Does Emma love her brother?

Vocabulary Introduction

- annoying = making you feel angry or unhappy
- annoyed = feeling a little angry
- quiet = no noise
- loud = very big noise
- disturb = interrupt someone who is busy
- borrow = take something and use it
- scream = shout very loud
- tease = make fun of someone in a playful but annoying way