PDF 2 – My Friend Is Always Late – Grok's Reply & Speaking

Grok's Fun Reply Letter (read together)

Dear Anna,

Haha, I know Marco! 😂 He is late to his own birthday party!

Here is my advice:

1. Next time, tell him the wrong time. Say "Meet at 2:30" but really meet at 3:00. Surprise!
2. Bring a book or your phone. Waiting time = coffee + TikTok time!
3. Or make a funny rule: Every time he is late, he buys the coffee!

You are a good friend. Maybe Marco is just "time-challenged". Talk to him nicely.

Your friend, Grok

Speaking Activities (all pair / group work)

Activity 1 – Quick Discussion (5 min)

Ask and answer:

1. Is Grok's advice good or crazy? Why?
2. What is the best excuse you ever heard?
3. What is the funniest way to punish a late friend?

Activity 2 – Role Play (8-10 min)

Student A = Anna (annoyed)

Student B = Marco (always has an excuse)

Example start:

A: Marco! You are 25 minutes late again!

B: Sorry! The cat ate my watch...

Swap roles. Perform 1 short dialogue for the class.

Activity 3 – "Would you rather..." (fun & fast)

Would you rather...

- wait 30 minutes for a friend or be the person who is always late?
- have a friend who is always late or a friend who is always early?
