

MY FRIEND IS ALWAYS LATE

Part A: Complete the Sentences

Use should, could, or might.

- Chiara _____ talk to Luca about being late.
- Luca _____ bring a watch next time.
- Chiara _____ bring a book while she waits.
- Luca _____ arrive early one day (maybe!).
- Chiara _____ stop inviting Luca (but she doesn't want to).
- Luca _____ think time is just a number.
- Chiara _____ send a reminder before the meeting.
- Luca _____ say sorry with flowers or snacks.

Part B: Rewrite with Modals

Change the sentence using should, could, or might.

Example: Chiara waits for Luca every time. Chiara could bring a book while she waits.

- Luca is always late. _____
- Chiara feels stressed. _____
- Luca arrives with snacks. _____
- Chiara wants advice. _____

Part C: Advice Dice

Roll a die or close your eyes. Now press your finger down on the Situations below. Whatever situation you touch... that's the one you must advise on using a modal verb. Each number gives a situation.

Example Situations:

1. Your friend is always late for school.	4. Your friend is late for your birthday party.
2. Your teacher arrives 20 minutes late every day.	5. Your cousin is late for the movie.
3. Your mom is late picking you up.	6. Your dog is late for dinner (just for fun!).

Responses: "You should talk to your teacher."

"You might bring a book."

"You could tell your friend the wrong time!"

Part D: Act & Advise

One student acts out a "late" situation silently. The class guesses what's happening and gives advice using modal verbs.

Example: Student pretends to wait at a bus stop. Class says: "You should check the schedule!" / "You might call your friend!"
