

THE STORY OF THE HAMBURGER

Part 1: Partner Interview — Burger Memories

Ask your partner the following questions. Take notes and be ready to share one “burger moment” with the class.

👉 Ask one follow-up WH-question for each answer (e.g., “Why?” “Where?” “What kind?”)

1. Do you like hamburgers? Why or why not?
2. What’s the strangest burger you’ve ever seen or eaten?
3. What toppings do you love or hate?
4. Have you ever had a burger in another country?

Part 2: Group Role-Play — Burger Shop Chaos

You work at a burger shop on a very strange day. Customers are ordering weird things. The chef is confused. The manager is late. Create a short skit using sequencing words and passive voice.

Goal: Use at least 3 sequencing words and 2 passive voice sentences.

Roles:

Customer

Chef

Manager

Waiter/Waitress

Ideas:

A customer asks for a burger with toothpaste.

The chef accidentally grills a shoe.

The manager arrives on a skateboard.

The ketchup machine explodes.

Part 3: Listening Practice — Burger Surprise
