

THE REVOLVING DOOR

Listen, Read, Remember!

Level: Intermediate

Focus: Listening, reading review, emotional vocabulary, past simple

Tone: Reflective, light, confidence-building

Includes: Listening script, comprehension task, reading review, teacher's key

Part 1: Listening Task — Mariela's Voice Message

Listen to Mariela's voice message to her cousin after her supermarket adventure. Then answer the questions below.

Listening Comprehension Questions

1. Where did Mariela go? _____
2. What kind of door did she see? _____
3. What happened to her shopping list? _____
4. How did people react? _____
5. How did Mariela feel? _____

Part 2: Reading Review — True or False?

Read the statements below. Write T (true) or F (false).

1. Mariela lives in Lima. _____
2. She had used a revolving door many times before. _____
3. Her shopping list flew out of her hand. _____
4. A child cried when she got stuck. _____
5. Mariela felt embarrassed and proud. _____

Part 3: Emotional Vocabulary Review

Match the emotion to the correct sentence from the listening task.

Emotion	Sentence
1. Embarrassed	"A child laughed."
2. Proud	"The guard stared like I was a new species."
3. Confused	"I finally escaped."
4. Relieved	"I got stuck."
5. Amused	"I survived the city door!"

Teacher's Key

Part 1: Listening Task — Mariela's Voice Message

Listen to Mariela's voice message to her cousin after her supermarket adventure. Then answer the questions below.

Teacher Note: You can read this aloud and record it.

Script: "Hey, Rosa. You won't believe what happened today. I went to the supermarket in Lima and saw one of those fancy city doors — the kind that spins. I thought, 'How hard can it be?' Well... I got stuck. My shopping list flew away. A child laughed. A security guard stared like I was a new species. I finally escaped and pretended I was fine. Honestly, I felt embarrassed, but also kind of proud. I survived the city door!"

Listening Comprehension Questions

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Where did Mariela go? | The supermarket in Lima |
| 2. What kind of door did she see? | A revolving door |
| 3. What happened to her shopping list? | It flew away |
| 4. How did people react? | A child laughed, a guard stared |
| 5. How did Mariela feel? | Embarrassed and proud |

Part 2: Reading Review — True or False?

Read the statements below. Write T (true) or F (false).

- | | |
|---|---------------------|
| 1. Mariela lives in Lima. | False |
| 2. She had used a revolving door many times before. | False |
| 3. Her shopping list flew out of her hand. | True |
| 4. A child cried when she got stuck. | False |
| 5. Mariela felt embarrassed and proud. | True |

Part 3: Emotional Vocabulary Review

Match the emotion to the correct sentence from the listening task.

- | Emotion | Sentence |
|----------------|--|
| 1. Embarrassed | "I got stuck." |
| 2. Proud | "I survived the city door!" |
| 3. Confused | "The guard stared like I was a new species." |
| 4. Relieved | "I finally escaped." |
| 5. Amused | "A child laughed." |