

MY PARENTS DON'T UNDERSTAND MEMES

Part A: Write Your Own Letter

Imagine you have a funny or frustrating problem. Write a short letter to the AI asking for help. Use Martina's letter as a model.

Use These Words

Try to use at least 3 of these words in your letter:

confused explain share funny internet advice should could might

Start like this:

Dear AI, I have a problem. It's about _____.

My parents/friends/teacher _____.

Sometimes I feel _____.

Can you help me? What should I do?

From _____.

Part B: Be the AI!

Now switch roles. Read a classmate's letter and write a short reply as the AI.

Use should, could, or might in your reply.

Start like this:

Dear _____ [Name],

Thank you for your message. I understand your problem. Here's my advice. _____

Part C: Act It Out!

Close your eyes. Take a deep breath. Now press your finger down on the problem block.

Whatever problem you touch... that's the one you must act out!

Act silently. Use your face, hands, and body. No words! Your group will guess the problem and give advice using should, could, or might.

Problem Block – What's Your Problem?

My dad says "LOL" after bad news	My mom printed a meme and put it on the wall
My grandma uses TikTok	My friend sends memes during class
I lost my phone at school	I got a meme from my math teacher
My teacher doesn't understand emojis	My uncle thinks memes are dangerous
My little brother sends memes to my friends	My cousin made a meme about me
My parents say "me-me" instead of "meme"	My parents use emojis in every sentence
I tried to explain a meme and they just said "OK"	My teacher said "LOL" in a serious meeting