

IN THE CLASSROOM

© talkmor.com

Activity 1: Classroom Memory Game (Group Game)

Look at the big picture for 30 seconds.

Then close your books. Take turns saying what you remember:

“There is a whiteboard.” / “There are many desks.” / “The teacher is standing near the board.”

The student who remembers the most wins!

Activity 2: Would You Rather...? Discuss with your partner.

1. Would you rather sit next to the window or next to the door?
2. Would you rather have a big whiteboard or many computers in the classroom?
3. Would you rather sit at the front or at the back of the class?

Activity 3: Quick Self-Check

- I can name many classroom objects. → Yes / A little / Not yet
- I can describe where things are. → Yes / A little / Not yet
- I can ask for things politely in class. → Yes / A little / Not yet

Quick Check - Complete the sentences.

1. There _____ a big whiteboard in the classroom.
2. The students are sitting _____ their desks.
3. _____ I borrow a pencil, please?
4. My favorite thing in the classroom is _____.

Homework: Draw a simple picture of your own classroom and write 6–8 sentences about it.

Use: There is / There are, prepositions, and classroom objects