Activity 1: The Modifier vs. Replacer Match

Draw a line to match the Possessive Adjective to its matching standalone Possessive Pronoun:

- | | |
|-------------------|----------|
| • 1. My [_____] | A. Ours |
| • 2. Your [_____] | B. Yours |
| • 3. Her [_____] | C. Mine |
| • 4. Our [_____] | D. Hers |

Activity 2: Would You Rather...? (Discussion)

Discuss with your partner.

1. Would you rather lose your phone or your backpack?
2. Would you rather find someone's camera or someone's skateboard?
3. Would you rather take your family's picnic basket or your friend's ball?

Activity 3: Quick Self-Check

Tick your answer.

- I can use possessive adjectives (my, your, his, her...) correctly. → Yes / A little / Not yet
- I can use possessive pronouns (mine, yours, his, hers...) correctly. → Yes / A little / Not yet
- I can talk about things that belong to people. → Yes / A little / Not yet

Activity 4. The "Exit Ticket" Challenge (Use a Possessive Adjective)

Before you leave the classroom, test your memory of the Lost & Found scene and fill in the blanks

- The girl on the right claims the wheels. She says, "That is _____ skateboard!"
- The boy hugs his blue ball tightly. The football is _____.
- The grandparents own the camera. The camera belongs to them, so it is _____.

Homework Idea:

Write 6–8 sentences about things in your house or classroom. Use both possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns. Example: This is my phone. The phone is mine.
