

INTI RAYMI (PERU)

© talkmor.com

Lesson Goal

Students learn about Inti Raymi, a famous Peruvian festival, while practicing simple vocabulary, speaking, and cultural awareness.

Warm-Up Questions	Quick Guess
Ask students: 1. Do you like festivals? 2. What festivals do people celebrate in your country? 3. Do people wear special clothes at festivals? 4. Do you like music and dancing? 5. Would you like to visit Peru?	Tell students: "Today we will learn about a special festival from Peru." Ask: • What do you think people do at this festival? • Is it modern or traditional? • Is it inside or outside? • Is it during the day or at night? Students make simple guesses.

Class Poll

Ask students to raise their hands.

Which festival activities do you like?

- Watching music performances
- Dancing
- Wearing costumes
- Taking photos
- Eating festival food
- Watching parades

Count the votes and announce the class favorite.

Fun Fact for the Teacher

Inti Raymi means "Festival of the Sun."

It is one of the most famous traditional celebrations in Peru and is connected to the history of the Inca people.