

Writing Task 1

A Festival Worth Preserving

Write 120–180 words.

Why is it important to preserve traditional festivals?

Consider:

- culture
- history
- identity
- education
- tourism

Writing Task 2

Imagine You Attended Inti Raymi

Write a short article for a travel magazine.

Include:

- where the festival takes place
- what you saw
- what surprised you
- what you enjoyed most
- whether you would recommend it

120–180 words

Critical Reflection

Discuss with a partner.

1. What is the most important thing you learned about Inti Raymi?
2. Why do cultural traditions matter?
3. What traditions should future generations preserve?
4. What would the world lose if traditional festivals disappeared?

Compare & Contrast

Compare Inti Raymi with a celebration from your country.

Consider:

- | | | |
|---------|------------|------------|
| • food | purpose | clothing |
| • music | traditions | popularity |

Speaking Challenge

Present your comparison in 1–2 minutes.

Quote Discussion

Read the quote:

"A culture survives when its traditions are remembered."

Discuss:

1. Do you agree?
2. What traditions are important in your country?
3. Are young people interested in preserving traditions?

Final Reflection

Complete the sentences.

Before this lesson, I knew _____

Now I understand _____

The most interesting part of Inti Raymi is _____

One tradition from my culture that should be preserved is _____

Final Challenge

Three Lessons from Inti Raymi

Write three things modern societies can learn from traditional festivals.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Well Done!

You have explored:

The history of Inti Raymi

The culture of Peru

Traditional music and celebrations

The importance of preserving cultural heritage