

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME

© talkmor.com)

Part 1: Quick Review – The Big Three - Complete the rules:

- AT is used for specific times → e.g. _____ 7 o'clock, _____ noon, _____ midnight
- ON is used for days and dates → e.g. _____ Monday, _____ 15th March, _____ my birthday
- IN is used for longer periods → e.g. _____ the morning, _____ July, _____ 2025, _____ summer

Part 2: Mixed Quiz - Choose at / on / in or write the correct preposition.

1. My English lesson is _____ Wednesday _____ 10 o'clock.
2. I usually wake up _____ 7:30 _____ the morning.
3. We are going on holiday _____ December.
4. The party starts _____ 8 PM _____ Saturday night.
5. She was born _____ 12th May _____ 1998.
6. What do you do _____ weekends?
7. Let's meet _____ lunchtime _____ Friday.
8. It is very cold _____ winter here.
9. The supermarket closes _____ 10 o'clock _____ the evening.
10. My birthday is _____ August _____ the 25th.

Part 3: Error Correction - Correct the mistakes in these sentences:

1. I have class in Monday at 9 o'clock.
2. We go to the beach on July.
3. The meeting is on 3:00 in the afternoon.
4. She was born at 15th March in 2005.
5. I like to study in night.

Part 4: Self-Assessment - How well can you use these prepositions now? Circle one.

Skill	Not yet 😞	Okay 😊	Good! 😄
I can use at for times
I can use on for days/dates
I can use in for months/seasons/parts of day
I can talk about my weekly routine

One thing I still need to practise: _____

Part 5: Final Writing Task

Write a short paragraph (6–8 sentences) about your typical week or your plans for next week.

Use at, on, in as much as possible.

Homework (Choose one)

1. Write about your real weekly schedule (minimum 8 sentences).
2. Draw a simple calendar for next week and write 5 sentences about it.
3. Tell a family member or friend about your week using at, on, in.

Teacher Notes:

- Use this at the end of the lesson for consolidation.
- Spend 10–15 minutes on the quiz + writing, then do quick feedback.
- Collect the self-assessment to see what needs more review next class.