

 DIWALI  FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS

© talkmor.com

Activity 1: Diwali Quiz

Choose the correct answer.

Diwali is known as:	People often celebrate with:	Families often:	The sky may be filled with:	Diwali is a:
a) Festival of Music b) Festival of Lights c) Festival of Flowers	a) diyas b) snow c) umbrellas	a) stay apart b) celebrate together c) go to school	a) clouds b) birds c) fireworks	a) festival b) sport c) dance

Activity 2: Finish the Sentences

- I would like to celebrate Diwali because _____.
- My favorite part of the picture is _____.
- I think the lights are _____.
- I would bring _____ to the celebration.
- Diwali looks _____.

Activity 3: Class Game

Two Truths and One Lie

Write: 2 true sentences and 1 false sentence about Diwali.

Example:

- Diwali is the Festival of Lights.
- People celebrate with diyas.
- Diwali takes place on the moon.

Partners guess the lie.

Activity 4: Write a Festive Card

Imagine you are visiting a friend in India during Diwali. Write a short, 3-sentence postcard message to your family back home describing the scene. Use at least three words from today's lesson (e.g., lights, sweets, music, beautiful, family, clothes).

Dear Family,

I am having an amazing time here! _____

Love, > _____

Activity 5: Vote!

Would you like to celebrate Diwali?

- Yes! Maybe. No.

Explain your answer.

Exit Ticket

Complete:

Today I learned...

The most beautiful thing about Diwali is...

One question I still have is...

Well Done! You have learned about:

 lights

 gifts

 fireworks

 family celebrations

 Diwali – Festival of Lights

Homework

My Favorite Celebration

Write 5–8 sentences about a celebration in your country.

Include:

- its name
- when it happens
- who celebrates it
- what people do
- why you like it

Draw a picture if you wish.

Teacher Key

Activity 1: Diwali Quiz

Choose the correct answer.

Diwali is known as:	People often celebrate with:	Families often:	The sky may be filled with:	Diwali is a:
a) Festival of Music b) Festival of Lights c) Festival of Flowers	a) diyas b) snow c) umbrellas	a) stay apart b) celebrate together c) go to school	a) clouds b) birds c) fireworks	a) festival b) sport c) dance