

INTI RAYMI ☀️ (PERU)

© talkmor.com

Activity 1: Comparatives

Complete the sentences.

1. Inti Raymi is _____ (old) than many modern festivals.
2. The costumes are _____ (colorful) than everyday clothes.
3. Some festivals are _____ (large) than Inti Raymi.
4. Watching a festival is _____ (exciting) than watching it on TV.
5. Traditional celebrations are often _____ (interesting) than people expect.

Activity 2: Festivals Around the World

Compare Inti Raymi with a festival from your country.

Talk about: food, clothes, music, number of people & traditions

Example: "Inti Raymi is older than our local festival. Our festival has more food stalls."

Activity 3: Agree or Disagree?

Discuss & Explain your answers.

1. Traditional festivals are important.
2. Young people should learn about history.
3. Cultural celebrations bring people together.
4. Governments should support cultural festivals.
5. Festivals help preserve traditions.

Activity 4: Complete the Sentences

1. I would like to visit Inti Raymi because...
2. The most interesting part of the festival is...
3. Traditional festivals are important because...
4. My country should...
5. I learned that...

Share your answers with a partner.

Activity 5: Mini Presentation

Prepare a one-minute talk.

Topic: A Festival in My Country

Include: name, location, activities & why people enjoy it

Present to the class.

Teacher's Key

Activity 1: Comparatives

Complete the sentences.

1. Inti Raymi is older (old) than many modern festivals.
2. The costumes are more colorful (colorful) than everyday clothes.
3. Some festivals are larger (large) than Inti Raymi.
4. Watching a festival is more exciting (exciting) than watching it on TV.
5. Traditional celebrations are often more interesting (interesting) than people expect.