Activity 1 – Telephone Role-Plays

Work with a partner.

One student is Caller.One student is Receiver.

Swap roles after each conversation.

Situation 1	Situation 2	Situation 3	Situation 4	Situation 5
Call your friend to invite them to the cinema.	Call your teacher. Ask about tomorrow's class.	Call the hairdresser. Ask if they are open on Saturday.	You have the wrong number. Be polite.	Your friend is busy. Leave a message.

Activity 2 – Back-to-Back Calls

Sit back-to-back with your partner.

You may not look at each other.

Have a complete telephone conversation using only your voices.

Activity 3 – Find Someone Who...

Walk around the classroom.

Find someone who...Name*Name*Name

- ☐ prefers calling to texting.
- ☐ has made a phone call today.
- ☐ has called the wrong number.
- ☐ often phones their grandparents.
- ☐ uses speakerphone.

Write their names.

Activity 4 – Phone Conversation BuilderStudent A chooses one item from each column.

Student B must continue the conversation naturally.

Start	Problem	Finish
Hello!	Wrong number	Goodbye!
Good morning.	Busy person	Leave a message
Hi!	Bad signal	Call back later
Hello.	No answer	Try again tomorrow
Good afternoon.	Low battery	Finish politely

Repeat with different combinations.

One-Minute Speaking

Talk for one minute about one of these topics.

- My first mobile phone.
- The funniest phone call I've ever had.
- Why I prefer texting (or calling).
- A phone call I'll always remember.
- The most important person I call.
